I remember every morning you would tell us to clean up the house. He would be watching the news. Around noon he would go make him a hamburger with just grilled onions and pickles, but it didn't matter what food Papa always had to have his grilled onions. For us to go outside we had to do his massage. When Papa went to sleep we went out and when we came back Papa would tell us to get the belt. I'm going to miss you Papa.

The Life and Legacy Of...

Joseph McWane

Joseph McWane was born November 11, 1963 to Joe and Elaine McWane in Chicago Illinois.

Joseph attended Morton Upper Grade Center and later went on to attend Rezin Orr High School.

Joseph was a very hard worker and was a great provider for his family. He worked for Tyson Foods in Downers Grove Illinois until his health declined.

Joseph enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest. He was the life of every party, Joseph thought everybody's birthday "was his birthday". We had to remind him often, "Joseph this is not your party".

Joseph loved music, all kinds of music. He just loved having fun. He had a special bond with his dad. He had a special connection with his brother Eric, especially when they were on the phone for hours being messy, talking about their kids. He had a love like no other for his wife, children and his grandchildren.

Joseph always had the family laughing. One joke we always laugh about: He would call us coconuts, and one day we asked "Dad, why do you call us coconuts?" He replied, "you know how you crack the top of the coconut and nothing comes out, that means yall heads empty.

Joseph accepted Christ at an early age, he became a member of Revelation M.B Church where he was a faithful member. He later joined Destiny Worship Center under the leadership of Elder DeAndre Patterson, where he remained a member until his death.

Joseph married his teenage love ,Tee. They were known together as the west side Bonnie and Clyde, there was no Big Joe without Big Tee they were inseparable, till the bitter end. They spent 36 years together, as soul mates.

Joseph departed this life on Thursday, June 10, 2021. Joseph fought a good fight, he kept the faith and finished the course. He's now resting in the care of the Lord.

His mother Elaine and sister Adrienne McWane preceded him in death.

Joseph leaves to cherish his wonderful memories; His loving wife, Tayunda; two sons, LaJoseph and Lavester; three daughters; Tierra, Jocelyn and Diamond; His father, Joe McWane; fourteen grandchildren, Jamaya, Shanya; Jakayla, Jazyiha, Jaquan, Jada, Javon, Jimmarion, Jaelan, Javion, Jazariah, Josiah, Jaylah, Jalaya, three brothers, Eric, Derrick and David; one sister, Sharon. Three aunts; Doris, Betty Ruth and Diane, three uncles; Daniel (Theresa), Elgin (Sarah) and Lonnie (Rosie) His mother in law, Leanna, His grandmother Mattie and father in law Pastor Larry Dixon(Loredia); Six sister-in-laws: Nuquita, Patricia, La'Shawn, Kimya, Tiawanda, Maria; Five brother-in-laws: Emanus, Lawrence, Simeon, Larry, and Fredrick. A best friend for over 40 years Kevin Terry, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*You meant so much to all of us. You were special and that's no lie .
You brightened up the darkest day. And the cloudiest sky.
Your smile alone warmed hearts. Your laugh was like music to hear.
I would give absolutely anything. To have you well standing near.
Not a second passes. When you're not on our minds.
Your love we will never forget The hurt will ease in time.
Many tears I have seen and cried. They have all poured out like rain
I know that you are happy now And longer in any pain.
~ Your Niece, Sharde*

Dad

*Your soul was ready but my heart was not... I'll always remember your strong embrace, your courage, your strength, your love and tough love, the jokes and laughs... Honestly I'll remember everything! Even though I knew you was right about everything! I always took the 'St. Louis Way" (show me state). You will truly be missed... I love you Dad.
~ Your oldest boy. Boo Boo*

My Brother

*Goodbyes are not forever. Goodbyes are not the end. They simply mean
I'll miss you until we meet again.
~ Love Capt. Curt*

No one ever loved me like you did. No one never hold me like you do.

*No one ever kiss me like you do. This is the part that bothers me night in day.
No more love in the air like you give just scream in my ear one more time and tell me you love me. I need it Daddy it's not right down here already without you I am going to always feel alone without you. The love you gave your kids and grandkids no one could never do what I do know you prepared us for a lot and I thank you for all you've ever done for us.*

~ Love Baby Girl, Diamond

I watched you suffer day by day; It caused us bitter grief to see you slowly pine away and could not give relief. Your weary hours and days of pain. Your troubled nights are past and in my aching heart know. You have found sweet rest at last. "Tis sweet to know we will meet again" Where parting is no more Big Joe I Love You So Much You have only gone before. God know how much I miss you; He counts the tears I shed and whispers "Hush he only sleeps your husband is not dead." The faced I loved so well someday, sometime, his hand I'll clasp, and never say farewell the pearly gates were opened. A gentle voice said "come"and with farewells unspoken; you gently entered home. Your smiling way and pleasant face; are a pleasure to recall; You had kindly words for each and died beloved by all.

*You like a rose to a tree like flowers to a melody we still inseparable.
~ Love You Baby, Your Tee*

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you and whispered, “Come to Me” with tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away and although we love you dearly we could not make you stay.
A Golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.
I will love you always and forever My uncle/My Dad.
~ Love your niece Asia

Joseph, I loved you as a son! And I know you loved me! I am going to really miss you!
