Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
 And the sun has set for me,
 I want no rites in a gloom filled room
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little – but not for long.
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love that once we shared.
 Miss me, but let me go.
 For this is a journey we must all take,
 And each must go alone.
 It's all part of the master plan,
 A step on the road to home.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart,
 Go to the friends we know,
 Laugh at all the things we used to do.
 Miss me, but let me go.

Ms. Debra Ann Wright was born on March 31, 1967 at St. Luke's All Women's Hospital in Harlem, NY. She was educated in the New York School System and earned her Diploma in 1985 from Leeman Herbert High School. Debra went on to further her education at Leeman College in New York. Debra always had a love for cooking. She was employed as a Prep Chef at Sam Kendall's in Camden, SC for over 13 years.

Debra was a member of Emmanuel United Methodist Church in Camden, SC. She was well known and loved by her family as well as the Community. Debra had a passion for helping others and she was always willing to lend a helping hand (with a smile on her face). Debra was also a compassionate caregiver to many of her family members and friends.

Debra was preceded in death by her parents, Elizabeth Greene Dow and Arthur Lewis Wright, her daughter, Miss. Tiffany Kirkland, her sister, Lynette Sheppard and her brother, Gary Sheppard.

Debra leaves to cherish her memories, Two sons: Philip (Deonica) Wright of Elgin, SC and William Kirkland of Camden, SC; Four grandchildren: Davante Wright, Jeriah Kirkland, Dameek Wright and Davian Miller, all of Camden, SC; Two sisters: Arthurine Wilson of Monroe, NY and Linda Sheppard of Brooklyn, NY; One brother: Steven (Mary) Sheppard of Bridgeport, CT; Four nephews: Theodore (Adriana) Sheppard of Camden, SC, James Sheppard, Sr, Keith Carlos and Khalik Carlos of New York, NY; Three nieces: Melissa Broadax, Latrisha Roberts and Monica Wilson-Washington of NC; A special great-niece: Rashai Sheppard; A special great-nephew: James Sheppard, Jr. Debra also leaves several Aunts and Uncles to cherish her memories. Aunts: Mattie Allen and JoAnne (Bill) McEachern of New York, NY, Sarah Stuckey, Gladys Lee, Addie Johnson, Virginia Greene, Penny Warren, Lula Greene, Mary Warren and Francina Warren, all of Camden, SC; Uncles: John (Hattie) Greene, Perry (Edith) Greene and Henry Greene, all of Camden, SC; her longtime best friend: Mr. Vincent Fortune; a special friend: James Tucker and a close friend of the family: Cassandra Nunley. Debra also leaves a host of other great nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
