

*Grandma,
I know you are listening from above. There's nothing that I value more than your love. No matter where I am or what I'm doing, your memories will always keep me smiling. You are not physically here anymore, but your love and light live on forever. The world changes from year to year, our lives from day to day, but the love and memory of you, shall never pass away. Now I know why you always told me to be strong. You knew that one day I would need the strength to bear your loss. Grandma please don't go away. I need you beside me every day. Unseen, unheard but always near, still loved, still missed, and held so dear.*

Your Grandchildren.

A Life Remembered

Lucille Crawford, daughter of the late Reverend Willie Brown and Addie Kirkland (midwife) was born on March 6, 1932 in Camden, South Carolina. She departed this life on December 3, 2019 in Stockbridge, Georgia surrounded by a host of family and friends. Lucille graduated from Aggrey High School in Landis, North Carolina on June 3, 1949. She worked at Kahn's Department Store, Garfinckel's Department Store, Chrysler, and as a domestic worker.

Lucille was a devoted mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, and friend who had a strong faith in God and a deep commitment to her family. Lucille enjoyed gardening, baking, and spending time with her family. Sweet gestures such as sending birthday cards to family was a recurring theme. Kind phrases such as "Take care of yourself!" and frequently referring to things as "Pretty" characterized the kind spirit she carried. Although she was too afraid to fly, there was no distance too long for her to travel to support her family.

Lucille's precious memories are cherished by her children: Terrie Wood, Jaha Tucker, Tonya Crawford, Robert R. Crawford, Jacqueline Harrington; Her grandchildren: Warren Wood Jr, Warner Wood, Kaashif Umrani, Adam Tucker, Julian Tucker, Isaiah Crawford, Percell Crawford, Raynard Crawford, Teiana Crawford, Howard Crawford, Ramone Crawford, Lakiesha Smiley, Lorita Harrington, DomNique Crawford, Donna Reid, David McKenzie, Britney Crawford, Christopher Crawford, and one sister-in-law, Mary Brown. She also leaves her memories to a host of great grandchildren, other relatives, and friends. Lucille was preceded in death by her parents, six sisters, two brothers, her oldest daughter Dorthea Reid, and one son Robert Crawford, III.
