

A Letter From Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see. If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me*

*I wish you wouldn't cry the Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say*

*I know how much you love me As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too*

*So When Tomorrow starts without me Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.*

Words of Appreciation

*During this time of sorrow, we learn how much our friends mean to us.
Your kindness and sympathy will always be remembered.*

Life Reflection

Ms. Inez Stoney of Lugoff, SC was born on June 3, 1939. She was the 12th child of 18 born to her parents, Boykin and Beulah Stoney of Lugoff, SC. Inez entered into eternal rest on June 4, 2020.

During her early years as a child, Inez grew up in Bethlehem Baptist Church in Lugoff, South Carolina. In 1957, Inez left Lugoff, SC to pursue a life in New York where she rejoined with some of her older siblings. She worked at Victoria Vogue Cosmetics and other odd jobs until she returned to her roots in December, 1975. After receiving Christ as her Savior, she was baptized at Bethlehem Baptist Church on Sunday, October 14, 2018.

Inez loved hanging out with friends, traveling cross country, gardening and various other outdoor activities. She also loved bowling and on February 28, 1999, she became the first woman in history to win a GCBA City tournament (individual bowling title).

Inez's presence will be greatly missed by all who loved her.

Inez was preceded in death by her parents, seven brothers and three sisters.

She leaves to cherish her memory of four children, Vivian A. Hall of Lugoff, SC Dwight Stoney of Lugoff, SC, Daphne (Leon) Starling of Florence, SC, and Sheila Brisbon of Lugoff, SC; hree granddaughters: Natasha R. Hall, Deanna Hill, Zymaya Brisbon; two Grandsons, Justin Stoney and Jeremy Stoney; two great-granddaughters: Camryn G. Lorick and Chase M. Lorick; two great-grandsons: De'onte Hill and Isiah Hill; five Sisters, Mary J. Fleming of Lugoff, SC, Mittie (Sam) Burris of Columbia, SC, Jessie Stoney of Brooklyn, New York, Virginia (Isaac) James of Camden, SC and Vermell (Rev. Marion) Bennett of Rembert, SC and one Brother Robert (Mary) Stoney of St. Albans, New York; and a Sister-In-Law, Elenora Stoney of Brooklyn, New York, and a host of loving nieces and nephews.

She will truly and dearly be missed by all those who knew and loved her

MOM

Mom, I really don't understand why you left me today
But I know you're in a better place

Mom, I am going to miss you now that you're gone
But I'll see you again when I get home.

I enjoyed the years we shared, I know you love me and always cared

Going to miss your fried chicken, turkey and neck bones

Mom I still can't believe you're gone

Leon and Jeremy are going to miss you too,

And You're telling me to leave them alone, let them do what they want to do.

Mom, you were a very sweet and easy going lady
But would make us laugh like crazy.

Other than us, never heard you yell or fuss

Everyone loved you and your special touch.

You've had so many friends from near and far

But you'll always stay in our hearts

Mom, there was nothing you could not fix

So what do I do now if I get sick?

Mom, your footprints are planted so deep in my heart

The memories will keep us together; we'll never be apart.

Eighty-One years you got to see

That's a blessing for you as well as for me.

You were Mom as well as a good friend

I'll remember all you taught me till the end.
