

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.*

In His Life

Lorne Homan
1969—2021

Lorne Miles Homan was born on July 28, 1969 in Consort, Alberta, the sixth child and second son of Don & Ivy Homan.

Lorne passed away suddenly on November 1, 2021.

After many years of searching, Lorne finally found the love of his life, Mirasol, in 2011. They married on March 28, 2012, and Lorne brought Mira home to Canada from the Philippines.

Lorne had a special bond with Mira's son, Yanyan, and he considered Yanyan as his own son.

Lorne supported Mira in every way, including her quest to continue her education. Mira's family adopted him into their family and they referred to him fondly as Uncle Lorne.

Lorne worked at a variety of jobs, including petroleum displacement engineer, cook, bartender, oil well worker, and heavy equipment operator.

Lorne loved to cook but said he was a horrible baker. He was always looking for new recipes and changing ingredients to make them his own.

Lorne loved diving, fishing and hunting and looked forward to retiring on a beach with Mira. He also loved listening and dancing to classic rock and roll and western music and watching good movies. Lorne loved being around children and entertaining them with jokes, stories and games.

Lorne and Mira lived in Cereal and Oyen, Alberta until his passing.

Lorne was predeceased by his brother, Leslie, brother-in-laws, Mike and Odean, and father-in-law, Alfredo.

Lorne is survived by, and will be forever missed by his wife, Mira, their son, Yanyan, daughter-in-law, Mitch, grandson, Janus, Lorne's parents, Don & Ivy, his sisters, Georgia (Ray), Debbie (Jerry), Barb and Connie, sister-in-law, Jenny, mother-in-law, Dayling, sisters-in-law, Elvira (Lito), Mirafe (Edgar), Fida (Edward) and Baing (Melben), brothers-in-law, El (Enday) and Rodel (Alot), and numerous nieces and nephews.
