

Every time I saw you, there was that big beautiful smile. I often asked him, “why do you keep that smile on your face?”

He said, “it helps me to get through the day.” In every room that he entered no matter what you may be going through by the time he left, you have a smile on your face.

He said that is why I smile, to make others smile. Talking with him over the telephone you could feel the smile and you actually smiled back.

Tony always had the last words about any/every ending situation, but when he finished he just smiled.

My brother, my friend, you will truly be missed. I will always love you.

Faye
