

A Limb Has Fallen

A limb has fallen from the family tree, I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve not for me". Remember the best times, the laughter, the song, the good life lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest, remembering all, now I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't just stare at the wall. I will miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin, until the day comes we're together again.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Edward James King, deeply appreciate and gratefully acknowledge your kind expression of sympathy.

A friendly smile, a casual touch, these are the things that mean so much. To know you are with us in our time of sorrow, sharing our prayers, today and tomorrow. God gives us the comfort in the form of good friends. May His peace be with you and His love never ends.

OBITUARY

Edward James King was a well known and loved man who knew and accepted God at an early age. He attended Longview Public Schools; Class of 1978. Edward worked at Wyatt's Cafeteria with his sister Eva Mae, then went on to trade school to be a mechanic, where he then worked for Kelly Springfield for many years. He lived his life doing what he loved: being a handyman willing to help anyone. His favorite saying was to tell you to Jump a ditch & don't panic for "I Am" your neighborhood 12th street shade tree mechanic. He loved being around family where there's laughter, music, love and food while smoking on his #2 paper sack.

Edward James King was preceded in death by his parents Eddie King, Sr. and Lahoma Garrison King, his wife Leatrice Liggins Johnson King, daughter Shannon Bradford, brother Clifford King and sisters Stella King, Ella Ruth King and Calla "Clara" King Wrighten

Edward leaves to celebrate his life his daughter, Katrina King Wilson (Randy); a son Randell King, brothers, John C. King; Alvin King and Eddie King Jr. (Robin); sisters, LeHoma King, Evelyn King and Fannie "Eva Mae" King-Brice Five grandchildren: Stoney Johnson Jr., Megan Johnson, Nijel Brice, Christian King and Kennedy King. Four great grandchildren: Emma Johnson, Diamond Johnson, Da'Jon Johnson and E'laya Johnson
