

A Reflection of Life

Jonathan Brown Sr.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

II Timothy 4:7-8

Obituary

Jonathan Brown was born to the union of Prentis (Ned) Brown and Elessie Pegues Brown on August 25, 1957. He received his education at Ned E. Williams, Maggie B. Hudson and Longview High School.

He went on to work at Stemco as a Machine Operator for 20 years and later went to work for Letourneau until injured and later retired.

He had a passion for playing softball, grilling, dominoes and most importantly, spending time with family and friends. He was truly an all-around people person.

He united in marriage to Verda Cox and to this union 2 children were born; and later in life his 3rd child was born with Lacroshia Jones.

His parents preceded him in death as well as his brothers and sisters J B Deckard, Roy Brown, Emma Jane Johnson, Minnie V. Ramsour and Darlene Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories his three sons: Jonathan Brown Jr., SeDanio Demario Brown, and Jovorious Devonte Brown (Shakeah); a step-son and step-daughter; 12 grandchildren; three sisters and one brother: Willie Mae Leaks, Jean Wortham, Louise (Felton) Dixon, Elvis (Althea) Brown; a sister-in-law, Glennie Brown and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

A special friend: Barbara Borens and a special nephew: Andrew Talley.

Tribute to My Dad

Daddy, this is 1 day I never wanted to see. I try not to be selfish because I know God does not make any mistakes. I know you are in a better place with no more pain or even suffering. Though you are gone from my sight but never from my heart, the memories and your legacy will live through me. I want to thank you for everything you showed and taught me. You were a great dad and man. I will love you to the end of my days.

Your Son, Jovorius Brown

limb has fallen from the family tree that says grieve not for me.

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
the good life I lived while I was strong.
