“I have been asked BY the company to get the opinion of two ladies each week who would be willing to try, with no obligation whatsoever, our premiere skincare set called TimeWise Repair. I have a sample set here that will give you 2-3 days of product, just enough to FEEL a difference, if not SEE a difference.”

“All I ask is that I can follow up with 3 simple questions after the three days. Jot your information down so I can contact you. Your contact info will not be shared with anyone, I just need verification of your answers for proof I participated in the surveys. Great!”
If you sold 2 TimeWise Repair Sets a month with the 3 half price items offer, you would be active all year long!

But what if you gained 1 new TimeWise Repair customer each week and then added their product reorders throughout the year? What could your potential monthly and yearly earnings be, simply focusing on the TimeWise Repair product line? Let’s break it down!
