With a Known Financial Interest in Property Identified for Wind Farm Development as of April 8, 2016

Updated as of May 4, 2010; August 12, 2010; March 17, 2011; May 31, 2011; August 31, 2011; January 12, 2012; July 9, 2012, September 11, 2012; October 2, 2012; October 30, 2013; January 29, 2014; November 6, 2015, December 15, 2015, October 3, 2016; February 9, 2017, March 24, 2017

This Report is provided under Section II of the Code of Conduct Agreement dated April 8, 2016 (the "Code"), between EDP Renewables North America LLC ("EDPR NA") and the New York Office of the Attorney General. Information contained in this Report is based on review by EDPR NA of agreements between New York landowners and EDPR NA and/or its affiliates, publicly available documents and responses by landowners to EDPR NA's questionnaires about Municipal Officials. EDPR NA also relied on the available public records and on the responses to EDPR NA's questionnaires by some of its landowners. The due diligence process is still ongoing and this Report is subject to further revisions.

Monetary consideration ranges provided in the Report are based on the actual payments made or estimates of future payments based on past experience. The actual amounts to be paid under any agreement may vary significantly based on the factors both within and outside the control of EDPR NA or its affiliates. For lease agreements, such factors and contingencies may include, but are not limited to, (i) commencement of construction of a project, (ii) exercise of the extended term under the lease, (iii) the price of electricity, (iv) the amount of gross revenues actually received by EDPR NA or its affiliates, (v) the amount of electricity generated by the wind turbines located on the property, as applicable, (vi) any curtailments imposed by the purchaser of electricity or local electrical grid, (vii) involuntary or voluntary shut-down of the project, (viii) the number of operational turbines located on the property, as applicable, (ix) any event of force majeure, and (x) the terms and conditions of the lease agreement. For easements, such factors and contingencies may include, but are not limited to, (i) commencement of construction of a project, (ii) any event of force majeure, and (iii) terms and conditions of the easement agreement. For options, such factors and contingencies may include, but are not limited to, (i) commencement of construction of a project, (ii) exercise of the extended term under the option agreement, and (iii) terms and conditions of the option agreement. For options, additional disclosures would be made upon entry into the leases by EDPR NA or its affiliates in accordance with Section II of the Code.
