President's Message: Jennifer Hays

Spring is in the air and that means it is time for CLEs and Just Desserts!

We had a great turn out for Judge Karen Arnold-Burger at this year's McFarland Award reception in February. Judge Arnold-Burger's speech about "imposter syndrome" really resonated with our members and generated great discussion after the event.

Dr. Philip Roudebush was our speaker at the March 20th general membership meeting. His "Confessions of a Poor Listener" speech was very enlightening and he reminded us that sometimes the most important thing in communication is to hear what is not being said.

Our Spring CLE speakers were amazing. Suzanna Schrandt was in town from D.C. and was able to do a CLE on the "What the Affordable Care Act and Health-care Reform Means for Kansas Employer and Employees." Chelsey Langland and Jeremy Schrag gave great tips and pointers in their CLE on "Effective Appellate Motions Practice."

Please save the date for May 10th for our Just Desserts fundraiser to benefit the Washburn Women's Alliance Scholarship fund. This year Luanne Leeds will be hosting the event at her office and details are enclosed on Page 3.

I hope to see you all at our upcoming meetings, CLES and events. "If you obey all the rules, you miss all the fun." - Katharine Hepburn

KWAA Annual Lindsborg Conference July 18, 19, 20, 2013

From the KWAA Website:

The Lindsborg Conference allows women the opportunity to share their experiences and expertise. The Conference provides 12 hours of CLE credit (including at least 2 ethics hours) each year on a variety of topics. The Conference also provides career coaching, powerful networking opportunities, and the chance to meet bright, energetic attorneys from all over the state. Best of all, the Lindsborg Conference is very reasonably priced and fulfills an entire year's CLE requirements in the space of three relaxing days spent among friends.

The 2013 conference will be held at Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kansas.

More detailed information will be circulated soon!
