

Ribbon Cutting - Center for Lifelong Learning

22 October 2013

Sponsor: Bill Toomey

Our VP, the always gracious Mary Ann Stana, welcomed everyone

UMW Chief of Staff Martin Wilder presided over a ribbon-cutting ceremony for ElderStudy's new classroom, now called the "Center for Lifelong Learning."

UMW Chief of Staff Martin Wilder apologized for the upheaval, but reiterated the University's support of ElderStudy and of our commitment to lifelong learning.

The ribbon is officially cut

President Phil Hall made closing comments and thanked all for their hard work with the move, and in making this ribbon cutting possible.

Our CLL – Our Center for Lifelong Learning
Scene of so many memorable programs

Stafford Campus – South Building
Our New Home