Thu	24 Jan 13	10:00-12:00	Behavioral Health in the Military and Veterans' Community CANCELLED  Presenter: Steve Robertson Sponsor: Dave Hill	The impact of armed conflict extends beyond the immediate battlefield. Service members are changed forever by their wartime experiences. In addition, the lives of their families and friends have also changed. When these combat veterans return home, everyone faces challenges and readjustments as the warrior reintegrates back into society. The military does an exceptional job preparing service members to go to war, but does a poor job in preparing them to return to life after war. Human beings are extremely resilient and most can reintegrate successfully. But reintegration is not so smooth for other veterans who encounter significant difficulties. There are some who will need the assistance of trained health care professionals in order to make it through rough times. Those who "fall through the crack" suffer from the invisible wounds of war.
Tue	29 Jan 13	13:30-15:00	Spring UMW Gallery Tour I  Presenter: Allison Hardy Sponsor: Peg Johnson	Note unusual start time. The tour begins in the Ridderhof Martin Gallery with "The Art of the Book," and continues in the duPont Gallery with "Double-Booked: Works by Brian Davis and Lauren Jacobs."

Wed	6 Feb 13	10:00-12:00	All in the Family: Letters between the Abolitionist Motts and Slaveholding Pelhams, 1853-1869  Presenter: Andrea DeKoter, PhD Sponsor: Bill Toomey	New Yorker Martha Wright and her daughter, Marianna Pelham Mott, were well-known in the nineteenth century for their abolitionism and women's rights activism, but they were also related to the slaveholding and staunchly Confederate Pelham family. Examining letters written between these two families before, during, and after the Civil War reveals the gulf that separated North and South as well as the strong bonds of kinship that helped the nation recover in the aftermath of our bloodiest conflict.
Thu	7 Feb 13	10:00-12:00	Chemistry Olympics  Presenter: Kelli Slunt Sponsor: Phil Hall	The International Chemistry Olympiad (ICHO) is an international high school competition involving theoretical and practical examinations covering advanced chemistry topics. Since 1968, the competition has been held every year except in 1971. Since 1984, the ACS Donald F. and Mildred Topp Othmer Chemistry Olympiad Endowment has allowed for the US National Chemistry Olympiad team to compete at ICHO. Each year approximately 10,000 students participate in the local section exam and from those over 900 students are selected to take the national exam. Twenty students are invited to the study camp at the US Air Force Academy and a team of four, plus two alternates, is selected to represent the US at ICHO. This presentation will focus on Dr. Slunt's experiences as a college mentor for the USNCO and participation in the ICHO.
Wed	13 Feb 13	10:00-12:00	Play Discussion ► Harvey, by Mary Chase  Presenter: Cate Brewer Sponsor: Bob & Carole Hanus	"Doctor, I wrestled with reality for 40 years, and I am happy to state that I finally won over it." – Elwood P. Dowd, Harvey. Kind and gentle Elwood P. Dowd is never far from his best—and invisible—friend, Harvey, a 6 foot-3½-inch-tall rabbit. When his exasperated sister, Veta, reaches a breaking point with Elwood's goings-on about the rabbit, she embarks on a plan to have her brother committed to a sanatorium. When the psychiatrist surprisingly diagnoses Veta a tad beyond loony, the imaginary Harvey becomes more real, and necessary, than ever. Tickets go on sale February 6 and will be available during and after this class. Box Office 654-1124. Show dates: February 14–16 and 21–23 at 8:00 p.m., February 17 and 24 at 2:00 p.m. For the hearing impaired, listening devices are available for checkout at the Box Office prior to each performance.
