

Michele Jordan is the Vice President of Recruitment and Outsourcing at Avery Partners. She attended Jacksonville State University where she received her masters degree in Counseling. Michele started her career in EAP (Employee Assistant Program) Counseling prior to working in the staffing industry. She is a Certified Personnel Consultant and has been in healthcare staffing for 17 years. 7 years with Medical Staffing Resources which then merged with Avery Partners in 2012. Michele has been a part of GMGMA since 2005 and is also a part of Georgia Association of Healthcare Executives.