2021 Adult Flying Scot Sailing Lessons

Tuesday Evening Adult Flying Scot Lessons

- This class will be in the comfort of a Flying Scot sailboat.
- This class is for adults who are interested in learning to sail. Adults with an interest in learning to sail or learning more about sailboat racing are encouraged to attend. No experience necessary, this class is tailored to meet the needs of each individual.
- We can accommodate your needs from cruising the bay watching the sunset to learning how to sail around a racecourse.
- Each boat will be catered to the participants desires.
- Fee: $450 for 8 weeks.
- Schedule: Tuesday evenings 6:00- Sundown: Boats will leave the dock at least 6 of the 8 weeks or makeup dates will be offered.
- Boats: Club Flying Scot

2021 Adult Sunfish Sailing Lessons

Saturday Morning Adult Sunfish Sailing 8:30 – 11:00am

Monday Evening Adult Sunfish Sailing 5:30 - 8:30pm

- Sailing is a lifetime sport. You are never too old to start, or old enough to stop. Sailing is a sport to be enjoyed throughout life.
- Learning to sail can be easy, fun and affordable. This summer we are offering adult sunfish sailing lessons on Monday nights and Saturday mornings.
- The lessons will be highly individualized, aboard sunfish class boats. Sailors with all skill levels are encouraged to come down and learn to sail on our bay.
- Weather being what it is, on inclement days, lessons will occur indoors, but we will sail six of eight weeks. Any additional weather days will be rescheduled, to get you on the water as many days as possible. An easy-to-use text will be provided and a syllabus will be available for your review, on line.
- Fee: $450 private sunfish
 - Unlimited private boats
- Fee: $550 club boat
- 8 spots available for club boat use.
 - Reservations is confirmed during the registration period as a first come first serve.
