Through her organization, AgeCelebration, Cindy Cosenzo brings people together in loving, supportive ways to grow businesses, organizations, individuals, and communities. AgeCelebration partners with local businesses and organizations to offer over 15 different community programs and classes for people of all ages and abilities to "create community" with each other through fitness, volunteering, travel, learning, and appreciation of each other and our community.

Hillsboro resident and VWW volunteer, Jan Farr researched and wrote Boomers on the Loose® in Portland as a guidebook for retirees who want to stay healthy, active and engaged in this chapter of their lives. Jan is eager to delight and inspire active Boomer-seniors through her books, website, articles, workshops and talks.

Village without Walls is a dynamic, friendly community of older adults who support each other in active, independent living. Our Village is not a place, but a network of caring neighbors.
