

Hoboken Ski Club Privacy Policy

The Hoboken Ski Club (HSC) respects the privacy of members, users of its services, and visitors to its website, and operates according to the following policies.

Personal Information

HSC takes precautions to protect your individual information from unauthorized use. E-mail and postal mail addresses are not released to outside organizations. Some personal information including addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, and other demographic information is collected for membership, subscriptions, publications, trip registrations, submission of articles, and other similar transactions. HSC may make internal use of your contact information to inform you of relevant situations or services. The HSC Membership Directory contains basic contact information and membership data. The directory is a service restricted to use by HSC members. HSC members may change and update their addresses, e-mail address, suppress use of their contact information in the Membership Directory, and/or decline to receive HSC-generated e-mail messages. This can be done by contacting our Membership Coordinators at membership@hobokenskiclub.com

External Links

The HSC website provides links to other websites which are not controlled by HSC. A link from the HSC website to another website is not an HSC endorsement for that website, or any related company or organization. Once you leave HSC's website and connect to the site of another entity, that site is not under the control of HSC. HSC is not responsible for the content of sites to which it is linked. HSC is not responsible for the accuracy, copyright compliance, legality, or decency of material contained on any other website. We encourage you to be aware when you leave our website, and to read the privacy statements of each subsequent website you visit. Use of this web site signifies agreement with the terms of this policy.
