Cousineau for providing our meeting space at no charge this month. Our old site, Tumwater Valley is apparently still being remodeled and is anticipated to be prohibitively expensive when completed. Several options were discussed for a more permanent site. Most contain some form of fee structure with or without a meal as part of the requirement. Jon Cox reported that Cabela's has a meeting room area that can accommodate a group of our size. There is a $25 fee and at least one person must order food. The club voted to try Cabela's next month. A minor hitch is that we will have to change our meeting day to either the 13th or the 15th, depending on availability. The room was already booked for the 14th, our normal meeting day.

New Business

Frankie Sokso is already working on securing a location for our club Christmas Party. Many places are booked now.

Michael South is selling his '92 Corvette. It's in very good condition-call him if you're interested.

Nick Strizic reported on the Ocean Shores Flag Day event, June 14th. Miss Washington will be the Grand Marshall and there will be a kite festival along with a dance at the Shilo Inn. Rumor has it that the PT Cruiser club will have more entries this year and there could be more of them than Corvettes.

Randy Harris reported on the Olympic Peninsula Tour, Aug. 9 & 10. If you're planning on going, let Randy know now so he can negotiate room rates.

Adjournment and Raffle

President Peggy adjourned the meeting at 7:57PM. Sugar Murphy won a Corvette gift bag, Jane Elliott won a Corvette book and Sandi Strizic won the $24 in the raffle.

Next meeting will be at Cabela's. Date to be confirmed by email but expected to be either Tuesday, May 13 or Thursday, May 15.

Respectfully submitted,

A man in a Corvette was being tailgated by a stressed out woman in a Porsche on a busy boulevard. Suddenly, the light turned yellow, just in front of him. He did the right thing, stopping at the crosswalk, even though he could have beaten the red light by accelerating through the intersection. The tailgating Porsche woman was furious and honked her horn, screaming in frustration as she missed her chance to get through the intersection, dropping her cell phone and makeup.

As she was still in mid-rant, she heard a tap on her window and looked up into the face of a very serious police officer. The officer ordered her to exit her car with her hands up. He took her to the police station where she was searched, finger printed, photographed, and placed in a holding cell. After a couple of hours, a policeman approached the cell and opened the door. She was escorted back to the booking desk where the arresting officer was waiting with her personal effects.

He said, "I'm very sorry for this mistake. You see, I pulled up behind your car while you were blowing your horn, flipping off the guy in front of you, and cussing a blue streak at him.

I noticed the 'What Would Jesus Do' bumper sticker, the 'Choose Life' License plate holder, the 'Follow Me to Sunday-School' bumper sticker, and the chrome-plated Christian fish emblem on the deck lid.

Naturally... I assumed you had stolen the Porsche."

when many of the cars had to stop for a splash of fuel to finish, and held off Clint Boyer to win. I'm a fan of Hendrick's Motor Sports Racing 4 car team, including Johnson, Earnhart, Gordon, and Mears. Two of Hendrick's cars finished in the top 10 and the other two cars finished 11th and 13th. But the important thing is that the driver I follow the closest beat the driver that I like the least! I'll not tell you who that is and that's why I bought a shirt and hat that says Phoenix International Raceway rather than a driver's name and number. That way, who ever wins, I can say "He's my man!" But I still paid the $55 for the merchandise.

It was a great trip even though our flight home was delayed a half hour and we had to give back to the airline gods that half hour we gained going down there. Would I do it again? Hell yes!!!! Would I spend the money involved to attend several of these events? Well, I need to check the odds of winning the lottery first. There is a NASCAR race each weekend somewhere. Maybe I need to have more birthdays and hope for presents like this one. But one thing is for sure, when I sit in front of the TV watching next Sunday, I'll have even more appreciation of the whole event than I had before. Boogity, boogity, boogity! Let's go racin', boys!!!!
