President's Message

As I sat down to write this message, the phrase "Pushing Out the Borders" came to mind. Strange thought, said I to myself, but let's just see where it leads.

Then it dawned on me that Corvettes de Olympia seems to be reinventing itself before our eyes. As I talk with you all at meetings, events, and planning sessions, I hear quietly but distinctly in, oh, so many ways: "Let's push out the borders!"

The success of the Corvette & High Performance Open House, the overwhelming participation in the Titus-Will Open House, Randy's creative approach to the Mystery Tour—these are pointers to an indescribable yet palpable delight in experiencing something new. I saw it again last weekend as I watched the Web Site Committee—Denny, Jon, Art, Shoshannah, Josette, Betsy, and Anne—gleefully giving birth to our next-generation web site. Bottom line, the Club is energized, and it has me wondering just what we're becoming. Whatever it is, it's exciting, captivating, and right in line with our goal that never changes—having ever more fun with Corvettes!

So don't be surprised if you don't recognize the Club—or yourself—in the days to come. We're pushing out the borders, and it just keeps getting better and better!
