"A New Contract for the Middle Class" with Isabel Sawhill, Senior Fellow, Brookings Institution

Isabel Sawhill, Senior Fellow, Brookings Institution, will discuss the American middle class. A renowned expert at Brookings Institution on children, families, and the middle class in America, she also served in the Clinton Administration as an Associate Director at the Office of Management and Budget and is the winner of many prestigious awards. Her most recent book, A New Contract for The Middle Class, is about the American middle class, currently under tremendous strain through the place in history that we find ourselves, and the current emergencies of Covid and unemployment. Her book examines income stagnation, fragmented families, and time pressure, among other topics.

"Climate and Covid: Tackling the Greatest Challenges" with Sherri Goodman, Senior Fellow, the Wilson Center

Join us as Sherri Goodman, Senior Fellow at the Wilson Center, provides a thought-provoking session on climate change and Covid, two of the greatest challenges of our time. Climate change remains an existential threat to our globe at the same time the greatest pandemic since 1918 is upon us. Our guest speaker is uniquely positioned to discuss these twin crises and how they relate to one another. Sherri is credited with educating U.S. military and government officials over the last generation about the nexus between climate change and national security.
