

FOOTHILLS CHAPTER ARKANSAS MASTER NATURALISTS
NATURALISTS IN TRAINING (NiT) 2020 CLASS SCHEDULE

Date	Topic	Location	Presenter	Agency
1-Jan	First Day Fun Hike	Woolly Hollow		AR State Parks
18-Jan	Intro to Master Naturalists	Conway, Faulkner County Library	FAMN	FAMN
		Nature Journaling	Vera Bowie	CAMN
2-Feb	AR Tormentors I: Things that Suck	Clinton, Van Buren County Library	Michael Gambill	FAMN
	AR Tormentors II: Associated Diseases
15-Feb	Field Safety and First Aid	Conway, Faulkner County OEM	Capt. Jason Mize	Little Rock Fire Dept.
29-Feb	Historical Use of Native Plants	Heber Springs, ASU Campus	Greg McCormick	US Fish and Wildlife Service
	National Fish Hatchery	Greer's Ferry Nat'l Fish Hatchery
7-Mar	Raptors of Arkansas	Tentative
14-Mar	Invasive Species	Conway, Faulkner Co Library	Margaret Cline	FAMN
	Cove Creek Natural Area	Cove Creek Natural Area	Ryan Leeson	AR Natural Heritage Commission
4-Apr	Trail Building and Maintenance	Heber Springs, ASU Campus	Charles Thompson	FAMN
	Trails of Sugarloaf	Sugarloaf Trails
18-Apr	Stream Team	Clinton	Bob Verboon	FAMN
25-Apr	AR Caves and Bats & campout	Private Ozark Cave	Tammy & Greg Vanaman	The Green Bat
2-3 May	BIOBLAST	Arkansas Master Naturalists state meeting in Little Rock May 1-2		CAMN
9-May	Climate Change	Conway, Faulkner County OEM	Dr. Larry Price	FAMN
	Storm Spotter Training		Dennis Cavanaugh	National Weather Service, NOAA
16-May	Map and Compass Reading	Woolly Hollow
	Pot Luck & GRADUATION!

NOTES:

Approximately 66 hours of education is offered. We hope you will attend every class, but you need only 40 hours to graduate!

The schedule may vary from the above

Class days generally begin at 9:00 am and finish by 3:00 pm.

Questions? Email foothillsamn@gmail.com