

Preparing Leaders for a Brighter Tomorrow

Over 100 TRIO participants from across the state of Minnesota attended the MN TRIO Adult Student Leadership Symposium on the MSU, Mankato campus on March 1. Students came together to develop leadership skills, pursue personal goals, enhance their academic skills and network with other students.

The theme for this year's Symposium was "Preparing Leaders for a Brighter Tomorrow". Students participated in sessions focused on career exploration, self-advocacy, leadership, study skills and academic resources.

Students also had the opportunity to participate in campus tours. The symposium featured videotaped welcome messages from Senators Al Franken and Amy Klobuchar as well as a keynote address by Mr. Bukata Hayes, Executive Director of the Greater Mankato

Students also had the opportunity to participate in campus tours. The symposium featured videotaped welcome messages from Senators Al Franken and Amy Klobuchar as well as a keynote address by Mr. Bukata Hayes, Executive Director of the Greater Diversity Council.

