

MID-ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION FOR COURT MANAGEMENT

www.maacm.org

MID-YEAR AGENDA DOVER DOWNS, DOVER, DELAWARE JUNE 12, 2019

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 2019

8:00 – 9:00 am	Ballroom Foyer	Conference Registration
8:00 – 9:00 am	Ballroom B	Continental Breakfast
9:10 – 9:15 am	Ballroom C	Welcome Joy Keller, MAACM President
9:15 – 10:15 am	Ballroom C	Managing Social Media Frenzy in The Workplace Keynote: Karen Michael
Today's employees are sharing content via social media that can impact your organization's efficient operations. Using interactive technology and case studies, workplace attorney Karen Michael will explore social media in hiring, the implications of the first amendment in employee posting, and how to address employee social media behavior that impacts your organization.
10:15 – 10:30 am		Break
10:30 – 11:30 am		Concurrent Workshops
	Ballroom C	Blurred Lines- Appropriate Workplace Behavior at Work and After Hours Presenter: Karen Michael

There are many blurred lines in the workplace and these have led to more questions about harassment. Using interactive technology, videos and case studies, workplace attorney Karen Michael will explain employer obligations in preventing and addressing allegations of harassment, and will bring clarity on behaviors that cannot be tolerated.

Silver Lake

Eighteen Ways Courts Should Use Technology To Better Serve Their Customers

Presenter: John Greacen

Courts have always focused on using technology to improve their internal operating successes. The Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System (IAALS) recently issued a report making their case for “outward facing” technology - court applications deployed to improve court customer’s experiences. The report describes eighteen such technologies, gives examples of courts using them today, documents the benefits that accrue directly to the courts these investments, and explains the importance of the COSCA/NACM/NSCS Joint Technology Committee’s “component model” in furthering rapid adoption of them. John Greacen, the report’s author, will introduce you to the report’s concepts, the eighteen ways, and specific court examples, incorporating the experience of the attendees.

Chesapeake Bay Dark Web

Presenter: Robb Wilmot

Is the Dark Web a real thing? What is the difference between the Dark Web and the Deep Web? Where is the Dark Web? Why does it exist? Can anyone go to the Dark Web? Is the Dark Web illegal? Should I be concerned about it personally or from a judicial standpoint? Where does Crypto Currency factor into the Dark Web. Answers to these questions and more will help to shed light on the mysterious Dark Web. This session will enlighten attendees to which aspects of the Dark Web should concern them and their court.

11:45 – 1:00 pm

Ballroom B

Lunch

1:00 – 2:00 pm

Concurrent Workshops

Silver Lake

Eighteen Ways Courts Should Use Technology To Better Serve Their Customers (Repeat)

Presenter: John Greacen

Courts have always focused on using technology to improve their internal operating successes. The Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System (IAALS) recently issued a report making their case for “outward facing” technology - court applications deployed to improve court customer’s experiences. The report describes eighteen such technologies, gives examples of courts using them today, documents the benefits that accrue directly to the courts these investments, and explains the importance of the COSCA/NACM/NSCS Joint Technology Committee’s “component model” in furthering rapid adoption of them. John Greacen, the report’s author, will introduce you to the report's concepts, the eighteen ways, and specific court examples, incorporating the experience of the attendees.

Chesapeake Bay Technology and the Bench
Presenter: Robb Wilmot

Technology and the Bench is an educational initiative sponsored by the Federal Judicial Center. Some of the collaboration partners include University of California, Berkeley Law School Center for Law and Technology, Cornell University, Princeton University, and Carnegie Mellon University in addition to the Administrative Office of the US Courts. The purpose of the national educational project and this MAACM workshop is to provide Court staff at all levels with knowledge that is critical to exist, grow, survive, and be informed when functioning at the intersection of Law and Technology. The information in this workshop will help all to make short and long-term decisions to support individual and judiciary wide safety, security, and efficiency while using technology resources to their fullest.

Delaware Bay Leading from the Light: Power of Positive Leadership
Presenter: Rick Pierce

Back by popular demand...In this energetic session, participants will discuss the value of connections with individuals they encounter, strangers as well as colleagues and friends. We will analyze the differentiation between relationships based upon trust and those based upon fear and how best to ensure you use the right one for your foundation of a relationship. We will discuss the "be attitudes" for leaders and how to differentiate the myriad of interests of a multi-generational workforce and develop strategies on how to address their individualized preferences. If you are a first-time supervisor or manager or have been in a leadership position for less than three years, this is a workshop for you!

2:00 – 2:15 pm

Break

2:15 – 3:15 pm

Concurrent Workshops

Silver Lake Managing Team Dynamics
Presenters: Kimberly Locker and Sandra Caicedo-Gomez

This program explores the essentials that team members and leaders need to understand for team success. Included in the session is discussion around team dynamics, how to avoid the seven behaviors that cause dysfunction in a team, how to understand and deal with different personalities on the team and the four stages of team development. Activities and experiential learning techniques will be used throughout the session.

Chesapeake Bay Dark Web (Repeat)
Presenter: Rob Wilmot

Is the Dark Web a real thing? What is the difference between the Dark Web and the Deep Web? Where is the Dark Web? Why does it exist? Can anyone go to the Dark Web? Is the Dark Web illegal? Should I be concerned about it personally or from a judicial standpoint? Where does Crypto Currency factor into the Dark Web. Answers to these questions and more will help to shed light on the mysterious Dark Web. This session will enlighten attendees to which aspects of the Dark Web should concern them and their court.

Delaware Bay Leading from the Light: Power of Positive Leadership (Repeat)
Presenter: Rick Pierce

In this energetic session, participants will discuss the value of connections with individuals they encounter, strangers as well as colleagues and friends. We will analyze the differentiation between relationships based upon trust and those based upon fear and how best to ensure you use the right one for your foundation of a relationship. We will discuss the "be attitudes" for leaders and how to differentiate the myriad of interests of a multi-generational workforce and develop strategies on how to address their individualized preferences. If you are a first-time supervisor or manager or have been in a leadership position for less than three years, this is a workshop for you!

3:15 – 3:30 pm

Ballroom C

Conference Closing and Annual Scholarship Giveaway*: President Joy Keller

**Must be present to win scholarship*