President's Report

"The world is run by those who show up." One of my favorite sayings. I generally think of it as a motivational statement – whether you are happy with your current situation or wish it were better, you need to "show up" to achieve the outcome you want.

I know many of us who pursue wild game with a bow are solitary creatures by nature. We enjoy the serenity of watching the world come to life as dawn approaches and settle back to sleep after the sun goes down. As an all-volunteer organization, Gamelines relies on those of you who break away from the solitude and "show up" to help make the club a better experience for everyone.

I want to thank everyone who contributes in this way. The club literally could not exist without you. I'm sure you would also agree that the personal benefit is greater than the $100 savings on your working member dues. The opportunity to meet fellow archers and form new relationships is worth much more than that.

We are always looking for people to join the fun of helping make Gamelines be the best club possible. Please consider signing up to help with one of the events listed on the Club Calendar at the top of the page. There are signups for each of them on our website, under the Work Day Sign-Up tab (must be signed in to see this tab).

Aside from helping out with events, you can also help out by volunteering to conduct range tours. This is a great way to meet prospective new members, and earn your work credit, while shooting at the range! To learn more about participating in the range tour program, send an email to rangetours@gamelinesarchery.com and Rob Leary will fill you in on the details.

Have a great spring and summer. I hope to see you at one of our events, or out shooting the range.

Matt

Winter League Results

Thanks to all who joined us at High Altitude Archery for Winter League this year. We mixed things up this year and had two seasons of competition. If you shot Winter League and have feedback on the new format you can reach out to Matt Bassman at shootdirector@gamelinesarchery.com.

Range Updates

We had a very successful work day on April 20. Thanks to the organization of Frank Zuppo and Matt Bassman, we were able to knock out a lot of work in a relatively short period of time.

Here are some of the improvements made on April 20.

- New broadhead targets – these targets intentionally do not have bullseyes/shooting faces so you can place your preferred shooting spot on the target. Please remove your shooting spot when you are finished.
- Multiple new 3D targets, including a new Grizzly target at the cliff shot.
- Fixed door on the ground blind – PLEASE CLOSE THE DOOR after you shoot from the blind so the door doesn't blow off again!
- Added targets to the kid's range.
- Added a natural ground blind above the two elk at the bottom of C loop.

Please send feedback to info@gamelinesarchery.com on the range improvements. We are especially interested to know what members think of the new broadhead targets and the kid's range.

If you missed the April 20 workday, you still have time to join the fun on May 11! We will be adding marked distances at the practice ranges, signing the kid's range, repositioning some bow rests on the 3D range and continuing trail improvement work that was started on April 20.

Please follow us on Facebook and Instagram and tag #gamelinesarcheryclub in your social media posts!

REMINDER: NO BROADHEADS ALLOWED OUTSIDE OF THE BROADHEAD RANGE

There have been indications of people shooting broadheads on the 3D course. Anyone caught shooting broadheads outside of the designated broadhead range will have their membership privileges revoked!

PLEASE ALWAYS WEAR YOUR RANGE PASS VISIBLY ON YOUR PERSON OR EQUIPMENT!
