

Congratulations to the recipient of the 2009 Mary Wiser Award for Excellence in Volunteer Administration: Janene Riedeman!

The 2009 Mary Wiser Award for Excellence in Volunteer Administration goes to Janene Riedeman, Director of Volunteer Services at St. Cloud Hospital. Janene has a long standing history of volunteer management and leadership in the St. Cloud area. For the past ten years Janene has managed the Volunteer Services Department at St. Cloud Hospital, which includes the Adult and Junior Volunteer programs, the St. Cloud Hospital Volunteer Auxiliary, the hospital gift shop, Lifeline personal response system, Home Delivered Meals, and a hospitality house. Janene also serves as a member of SCAVC, MAVA and as a trainer for MAVA's VRL initiative. As a professional, she is willing to help those new to the profession by passing on her knowledge and experience from the field of volunteerism. Janene truly demonstrates how collaboration and leadership can lead to a successful program and build a stronger community. She has the passion for volunteers and always has the best interest of the volunteers at the fore front all of the time. She lives and breathes volunteerism.
