

Earn Your Certificate in Volunteer Impact Leadership from the Minnesota Association for Volunteer Administration!

Do you find yourself wondering how to work with volunteers more successfully? Are you ready to take your volunteer engagement skills to a new level? Expand your professional effectiveness and knowledge for working with volunteers through the virtual Volunteer Impact Leadership Training Series, offered by the Minnesota Association for Volunteer Administration (MAVA).

This four half-days training opportunity provides a comprehensive exploration of key volunteer management processes, from designing volunteer positions to risk management to evaluating the impact of volunteer involvement. You will leave with new ideas, useful tools and a Certificate in Volunteer Impact Leadership.

Register to attend at mavanetwork.org. Advance registration required. Registration closes two business days before Day 1. All trainings are offered virtually using the Zoom platform.

The trainings are highly interactive and will require you to be able to view the PowerPoint slides, use your audio to listen and microphone speak to others. Please plan to join us from a setting that allows you to engage and participate fully.

Attendance Policy: You must attend all four days of the training series to earn your Certificate in Volunteer Leadership. If you need to miss more than 15 minutes total each day, please plan to attend an alternate series. We encourage you to attend all four days in the same month, but if you need to miss a day, you can make it up at a later time. Please contact us as soon as possible if you need to reschedule.
