2021 Year in Review

A message from MAVA Executive Director, Karmit Bulman

2021 is behind us and we thank our members, volunteers, and stakeholders for building greatness with us. Our name change demonstrates that MAVA’s work has expanded in terms of reach, innovation, and impact. MAVA delivered a record number of trainings and consulting sessions on a range of diversity, equity, and inclusion topics all across the country.

We provided advanced tools to help organizations rebuild volunteerism post-pandemic, and delivered two cutting edge conferences. VISTA and Service Enterprise infrastructure and capacity building programs grew in terms of individuals and organizations served. MAVA brought new anti-racism, older volunteer, and informal volunteerism trainings to the public and to individual groups and organizations.

We launched our brand-new Race Equity in Volunteerism (REVA) Program and we conducted groundbreaking research on race equity, older volunteers, pandemic, informal volunteerism, and trends in volunteerism.

We look forward to staying in contact with each of you and hope you will continue to feel that we are YOUR MAVA.
MAVA and Inclusive Volunteerism

MAVA ENTERED 2021 WITH GREAT MOMENTUM with our racial equity and inclusion in volunteerism work. On the heels of ongoing social upheaval, many non-profit organizations and for-profit companies began to see the urgent need for staff education and awareness and began to call on MAVA to fill the gap. Since January 2021, MAVA has received a record number of consulting and training requests from across the nation.

2021 WAS A BANNER YEAR FOR DIRECT VOLUNTEER ENGAGEMENT. MAVA was successful in connecting with Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC) community partners to co-create a new volunteer engagement cohort. An East Metro and Central MN DEI (Diversity, equity and inclusion) cohort was established early in the year. Each cohort member focused on the development of a DEI plan with aligned goals from the cohort, but with a customized approach to the DEI needs of their organizations. The participants expressed how beneficial this collective was to creating inclusive and welcoming space to:

- Grow authentic relationships
- Influence culture change at their organization
- Eliminate barriers to volunteering

MAVA closed out 2021 with the 3rd Annual Dismantling Inequities Conference. The accomplished keynotes, insightful workshops, and accessible platform proved to be a success. In total, 174 participants representing 108 different organizations from 21 different states and Canada attended this conference.

The MAVA VISTA Program

2021 and Beyond

FOR THE MAVA VISTA PROGRAM (MVP), 2021 WAS A GROWING AND LEARNING YEAR. We started the year with 9 host sites, 10 VISTA members, and a VISTA Leader. We had a plan to grow the program and find new ways to engage our VISTA members and, although we encountered a few obstacles along the way, we ended the year strongly. By December 31st, we had 16 host sites (6 returning from the previous year), 8 active VISTA members, and a new VISTA project for MAVA committed to helping build the capacity and further the reach of the MAVA VISTA PROGRAM, and expanding our volunteer engagement processes.

The MAVA VISTA Program has many exciting opportunities coming in 2022. After nearly doubling its sites in 2021, we will build on that into the new year by adding new sites for the next service year, new projects, new VISTA members, and more opportunities to be a part of the MVP. With that expansion, VISTA members will be taking a larger role within MAVA through the opportunity to join committees, present at the June conference, and share their stories with the MAVA network through “The VISTA View.” There are plans for the development of a MAVA VISTA alumni group and regular VISTA cohort meet-ups, as well as a VISTA video to continue to further strengthen the MVP.

If you would like to get involved with the MAVA VISTA Program, you can by: joining as a host site, joining as a VISTA member, and joining the site selection committee to help select the next iteration of sites. We are excited to jump into 2022 and we hope you will join us on the ride!
MAVA’s Greater Minnesota Program entered a rebuilding phase in 2021. Our District Council meetings, which are quarterly gatherings for the six regions of greater Minnesota, saw attendance of about 45 people in 2021. Of course, prior to the pandemic, District Councils met in-person for each region, and now they gather virtually on Zoom.

In 2021, MAVA procured funding from the Initiative Foundation to start the first-ever targeted Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) efforts in Greater Minnesota, in the form of a Central Minnesota DEI Cohort. The group met quarterly to learn from each other, brainstorm, and come away with new ideas to increase equity in volunteerism. In November, MAVA participated in FREC’s Overcoming Racism Conference, which turned out to be an incredible chance to build ties with other groups interested in DEI across Minnesota.

MAVA continues to pursue a volunteer sharing project in Central Minnesota. A handful of organizations are interested in pooling their resources so that a volunteer could fill out one background check and sit through one interview and be cleared and eligible to volunteer with any of several organizations.

Will you connect with MAVA? What amazing ideas could we think up together?
Training and Conferences

In 2021, more than 3,325 volunteer engagement leaders, AmeriCorps members, volunteers, interns and other employees working to advance volunteerism across the globe joined MAVA virtually for a variety of professional development and networking events. We enjoyed making new friends in the volunteerism field and seeing many familiar faces and names again.

June 2021 Virtual Volunteer Engagement Leadership Conference: In with the BOLD

2021 brought many challenges for volunteer engagement leaders that we were eager to put in the past. It’s time to work together to imagine the future of volunteer engagement: Out with the old, in with the BOLD. The conference focused on boldly taking a seat at the table where decisions are being made. The conference explored how to make the bold decision to dismantle the barriers put up around volunteering. 145 participants were enlightened by the following keynote speakers.

Carve Your Own Path - Dana Litwin, CVA
Dana Litwin explored three main topics: Identifying Your Unique Gifts and Talents, Persuasion and Countering Toxicity.

Out With the Old, In With the Bold - Donte Curtis
Donte Curtis inspired us to take BOLD action in your personal and professional life, by changing your paradigm about DEI, tapping into your personal power, changing your habits and creating a more just organization and world.

Where Do We Go From Here? Owning the Deep Commitment to Help and Not Harm - Breauna Dorelus
Breauna Dorelus explained that she would dive into the four postures to consider while developing, implementing and growing your volunteer program for the future.

December 2021 Dismantling Inequities Conference

174 people joined us for MAVA’s Virtual Dismantling Inequities Conference! This live and interactive conference highlighted the connection between racism and other volunteerism barriers, such as ableism, ageism, homophobia, anti-semitism and more. Participants connected and engaged through intentional and thought-provoking dialogue on the intersections of race with other “isms” including sessions of the “unconference” style format --designed to invite conversation around the question: “How do we dismantle inequities in volunteerism”?

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS
Service Enterprise in 2021

During the past year, volunteer engagement organizations in Minnesota faced unique challenges: maintaining volunteer involvement during the pandemic and social unrest while meeting critical needs, bringing volunteers back to changed environments, and working to meet community needs with reduced resources.

MAVA’s Service Enterprise Initiative rose to the challenge of helping organizations facing change by sharpening its focus on organizational transitions and moving to an entirely virtual model. The Service Enterprise (SE) change management model offered organizational teams a way to get reenergized to tackle challenges together.

Organizations participating in this process took the chance to hone their effectiveness to meet the challenges of the moment. Seven organizations started their Service Enterprise journeys in 2021. Despite – or maybe due to – their essential roles in providing food, shelter and transportation, they embraced innovation in volunteerism to better serve their communities.

These seven organizations formed MAVA’s largest SE cohort in years, their commitment to the process made even more extraordinary by the urgency of their missions. This group included:

- ACBC FOOD SHELF
- CEAP
- EVERY MEAL
- ICA FOOD SHELF
- ST. STEPHEN’S HUMAN SERVICES/HOUSE OF CHARITY
- UNION GOSPEL MISSION
- WECAB

Organizations also used the SE process to build their capacity by engaging volunteers more strategically. The Minnesota Assistance Council for Veterans (MAC-V) earned recognition as a certified Service Enterprise in 2021. Six other organizations demonstrated their commitment to excellence in volunteer engagement in 2021 by maintaining their status as Service Enterprises three years after initially earning SE certification. They were:

- CATHOLIC CHARITIES – ST. CLOUD
- DARTS
- INTERFAITH OUTREACH/COMMUNITY PARTNERS (IOCP)
- PARK NICOLLET FOUNDATION
- SECOND HARVEST HEARTLAND
- WINONA VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Both DARTS and IOCP maintained their certification status for a second three-year cycle.

As we look to 2022, it’s clear that change will be a constant, and volunteer managers’ skill in leading change will be crucial to thriving in an emerging volunteer landscape. MAVA’s Service Enterprise work will center organizational conversations, team training, and action planning on taking charge of change to create opportunities for innovation.

“We have learned that it is important for us to do the following things in order to fulfill our SE mission: build staff support, dedicate a staff position for volunteer management, engage volunteers with skills needed by us...Service Enterprise taught us the methods to accomplish these goals and gave us the tools to succeed.”

- Lead staffer for this effort
Thank you to all of our MAVA supporters and donors in 2021! We had 77 people contribute to MAVA, resulting in over $13,700.00 funds raised in 2021. We also appreciate MAVA supporters’ participation in the Target Circle Campaign. Guests at Target stores cast 100,968 votes to MAVA, awarding Target funds in the amount of $856.97 to our organization. Thank you! We truly hope to have an in-person fundraising event in 2022. Stay tuned!

Due to the pandemic, MAVA saw a decline in membership throughout 2020 and until the end of October 2021. Slowly, but surely organizations are now renewing their memberships or joining MAVA for the first time.

In 2021, we offered discounted memberships to those that registered for MAVA’s Volunteer Impact Leadership Training, the June and December conferences. During the month of October, we had our fall membership drive - “Give a MAVA Membership, Get a MAVA Membership.” Many members took advantage of this incentive to introduce their friends, colleagues, and family members to MAVA.

MAVA also provided monthly membership orientations - Getting the Most Out of YOUR MAVA Membership. These monthly half-hour virtual sessions demonstrated how to create and log in to your MAVA profile, find valuable tools and resources, and provide opportunities to connect with other volunteer engagement professionals.

The Membership Committee created fun opportunities to connect with other volunteer managers and coordinators in 2021! The committee hosted a virtual trivia game about MAVA. They also hosted MAVA’s first and only in-person event in 2021, MAVA’s 20th Anniversary Picnic at Como Park. That’s right, MAVA turned 20 in 2021! At the August celebration, there were new MAVA members and MAVA members that started the organization. There were also lawn games, a face painter, food, and a bubble artist.

We’re looking for MAVA members to join the Membership Committee. If you are looking for new ways to volunteer and gain experience in recruitment, retention, events, marketing, strategic planning, plus meet new friends, contact Jenna at jegan@mavanetwork.org. We look forward to connecting with all of you in 2022!
MAVA celebrated its 20th anniversary in 2021! MAVA was founded in 2001 in response to a vision that leaders of volunteers could greatly impact Minnesota’s volunteer community through one strong statewide alliance capable of creating visibility and credibility, and of impacting volunteers’ ability to have a meaningful impact.

MAVA came to fruition with a kickoff ceremony of approximately 200 volunteer managers from around Minnesota on November 14, 2001. On November 15, the Association’s executive director began serving.

In 20 short years, MAVA has become the State, National and Global leader for volunteer engagement leadership. We have become more than a professional association. Each year we grow stronger, and our work becomes more relevant to the members and the public we serve. Our Research studies have included such topics as volunteerism in immigrant communities, rural volunteerism, short-term volunteerism, City volunteerism, jobseeker volunteers, older volunteers, job equity for volunteer engagement professionals, trends in volunteerism and so many more topics.

From an all-volunteer organization to the 8-person staff organization; from no funding to a diverse array of funders; from a professional association to a broader capacity-building organization, MAVA’s growth has been impressive.

Our new name says it all. Congratulations MAVA for the expansive work you have done in advancing volunteerism and transforming lives.

Happy Anniversary!
