

Terry Straub received the MAVA Award for Excellence in Volunteer Leadership

The award was given in recognition of Terry serving as a MAVA Board President, chairing the MAVA's committee on Engaging Baby Boomers as Volunteers, serving as a top notch trainer for the Volunteer Impact Leadership Training series, providing in-service training for trainers, and many additional contributions to MAVA and the field of leadership of volunteers.

