

VOTER REGISTRATION

You are eligible to register to vote if you:

- ☑ Are a United States citizen,
- ☑ Are 16 years of age and will be 18 years of age or older at the time of the next election,
- ☑ Are a Colorado resident for 22 days immediately before the election at which you intend to vote, and
- ☑ Are not serving a sentence of confinement, detention, or parole for a felony conviction.

How to Register

www.govotecolorado.com

Colorado law allows you to register to vote through Election Day. If you have a Colorado Driver's license, a Colorado ID card or social security number you may register online at www.govotecolorado.com. How you register to vote impacts how you receive your ballot.

In order to receive your ballot by mail:

- Register to vote or update your voter registration online at www.govotecolorado.com through the 8th day before Election Day.
- Submit an application through the mail, at a voter registration agency, or at a local driver's license examination facility through the 8th day before Election Day.
- Submit an application through a voter registration drive no later than 22 days before Election Day.

If you miss the above deadlines, you may appear in person at a Voter Service and Polling Center in your County through Election Day where you can register to vote and then vote in person or pick up a ballot. Check with your County Clerk for Voter Service and Polling Center locations.

Change of Address for Voters Already Registered

- On-line at www.govotecolorado.com by the 8th day before the election in Colorado.
- By mail with a letter or form furnished by the County Clerk and received no later than the 8th day before the election.
- In person at any time when open, including Election Day, at:
 - Your County Clerk's office, or
 - Voter Service & Polling Center in your county of residence

VOTING

Ballots Mailed to Registered Voters

- Voters may complete the ballot and return it by mail, or take it to a drop-off location. You do not have to vote on every race or question; the rest of your votes will still be counted.
- Completed mail ballots must be received by the county clerk no later than 7PM on Election Day
- If you do not receive a mail ballot or spoil yours, you may request a replacement from your County Clerk, or vote in person at a Voter Service and Polling Center.

Voter Service & Polling Centers (VSPC)

These Centers are Located in each county to provide election services. Services include:

- Voter registration at any time up to and including Election Day,
- Voters may change their address if registered elsewhere in Colorado,
- Voters may drop off their completed ballot.
- Voters may surrender their ballot and vote in person.

ELECTION INFORMATION

The League of Women Voters online Voters' Guide provides election information including nationwide candidate and ballot measures based on location. (Either residential address or state.)

Go to www.VOTE411.org to find:

- Election dates
- Polling Center locations
- Colorado County Clerks' Offices
- Voter registration info and ID requirements
- Voters' Guide with candidate & ballot measures
- Upcoming candidate and ballot measure forums
- Nationwide voting information

With this voters' guide you can see the races on your ballot, compare candidates' positions side-by-side, and print out a 'ballot' indicating your preferences as a reminder to use when you cast your official ballot.

To access Your Voters' Guide (using an address)

1. Go to www.VOTE411.org
2. Enter your residential address
3. Click on 'Get personalized information for candidates and issues'.

Start to build your sample ballot.

NOTE: This sample online 'ballot' is a reference tool and does NOT take the place of your official voting ballot.

To view Voting Information for any state

1. Go to the 'State Voter Information' box
2. Select a STATE

All the above information plus Upcoming Forums and Debates will appear.
