Theta Nu Xi Multicultural Sorority, Inc. on Recent Acts of Violence

CHAPEL HILL, NC- Theta Nu Xi Multicultural Sorority, Inc. is appalled by the violence that has been on full display in our nation this past week. From bombs being sent to those who speak out against racism and discrimination, to the hate-fueled murders of two African-American people as they attempted to shop for groceries, and to the horrific terrorist attack on the Jewish synagogue, we condemn this targeted hate and violence.

These acts are becoming too commonplace and the current climate of our nation that has been fueled and divided by the rhetoric of those in control are not pushing us in a positive direction. National President, Amanda Pohl, says “As a multicultural organization, many of our sisters are affected by these traumatizing acts of terror. They feel their identities are under attack and that their government is doing little to stop the homegrown racism. We call on our lawmakers to provide real leadership and condemn the violence, racism and toxicity that brought us to this point.”

We send our condolences to the family and friends of those lost and stand with those who want to foster change and create an environment that will celebrate our religious, ethnic and political differences rather than attack them.
