Concert on the Esplanade: Rhapsody in Green

This summer, Beacon Hill Village will join forces with the Beacon Hill Civic Association for opening night at the Hatch Shell. A description of the program from the Landmarks Orchestra's website will give you a flavor of the evening. "Mysteries of the sea resonate in Debussy's La Mer and Hovhaness's And God Created Great Whales, a work featuring whale songs. Hometown favorite Jayne West performs Berklee Professor Francine Trester's gorgeous new setting of At the River. Pulitzer Prize winning composer Kevin Puts's miniature tone poem "River's Rush" flows with melodic waves and whirling orchestral color." The evening will begin with a cocktail party at the Hill House Fire Station, 127 Mt. Vernon Street, where you will pick up your boxed dinner before walking down to the Esplanade for the concert. BHV and BHCA members: $25. Non-members: $30.

Gropius House and deCordova Museum

Walter Gropius, founder of the German design school known as the Bauhaus, was one of the most influential architects of the twentieth century. He designed Gropius House in Lincoln as his family home when he came to Massachusetts to teach architecture at Harvard's Graduate School of Design. After our private tour, we'll head down the road to the deCordova Museum, where we'll have a boxed lunch before our tour of the magnificent outdoor Sculpture Garden. Please note that the second floor of Gropius House is accessible only up a flight of stairs with a railing and that the grounds of the Sculpture Garden are hilly and uneven. *Meet at Café Tatte, 70 Charles Street, at 9:30 a.m., or at Starbucks, 165 Newbury Street (between Dartmouth and Exeter), at 9:40 a.m. BHV members: $60. Institute of Contemporary Art: Free Friday

Join us for a morning of contemporary art at the Institute of Contemporary Art in the Seaport District. We're taking advantage of "Free Fun Fridays" for our visit, so there's no charge for admission. We'll tour the Museum on our own and then meet for lunch at Wolfgang Puck's Water Café, located in the Museum. If the weather cooperates, we'll eat on the outside patio overlooking the Harbor. During our visit, the work of Meleko Mokgosi will be on display. Working from photos and clippings from his native

Botswana, the New York-based artist creates scenes that investigate Southern Africa's past and present. Meet at the ICA, 100 Northern Avenue. From South Station, take the Silver Line one stop to the Courthouse. Exit the station onto Seaport Boulevard and walk away from downtown. Just before the first traffic light, there will be a pedestrian opening in the fence on your left – walk through it to the walkway that runs alongside the Chapel of Our Lady of Good Voyage. This will lead you to Northern Avenue. The ICA is across the street to the right. BHV members & guests only. Free admission to the Museum. Lunch is pay individually.
