Conversations with...Chris Bourg

Director of Libraries at MIT, Chris Bourg has written and spoken extensively on the future of research libraries, diversity and inclusion in higher education, and the role libraries play in advancing social justice and democracy. Prior to assuming her role at MIT in 2015, Chris worked for 12 years in the Stanford University Libraries. Before Stanford, she spent 10 years as an active duty US Army officer, including three years on the faculty at the United States Military Academy at West Point. Meet at King's Chapel Parish House, 64 Beacon Street, at 5:30 p.m. for light hors d'oeuvres and wine; program begins at 6 p.m. BHV/BHS members: Free. Guests of members and prospective members: $20.

Thursday, May 3 2 p.m.

National Braille Press

Learn how a braille book is produced during our one-hour tour of the National Braille Press, a non-profit founded in 1927. It's a complicated process involving transcription, proofing, embossing, pressing, tactile graphics and finishing. Meet at the National Braille Press, 88 St. Stephen Street (closest T stop is Northeastern on the Green "E" line), at 1:45 p.m. for our 2 p.m. tour. BHV members and their guests: $5.

Monday, May 7 7:30 p.m. concert; dinner at 5:45 p.m.

First Monday at Jordan Hall

First Monday at Jordan Hall is the New England Conservatory's popular free chamber music series, performed by some of the world's best chamber musicians. The program for this last concert of the season includes Mozart's Quartet for Piano and Strings, Debussy's Les Chansons de Bilitis and Shostakovich's Quintet for Piano and Strings. Take the Green "E" Line to Symphony. Dinner at Ginger Exchange, 250 Huntington Ave., at 5:45 p.m. Concert only, meet inside Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough Street. BHV members and their guests. Free.

Tuesday, May 8 10:30 a.m.

Seaport Walk with Davida

Many of us remember the Seaport District when its main attraction was cheap parking. Then, in 1998, the Federal Courthouse moved there from the Financial District, followed by the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center in 2004 and the Institute of Contemporary Art in 2006. Today, the area is filled with office buildings, condominiums, retail stores, restaurants, and a newly opened movie theatre complex. Join Davida Carvin on a leisurely walk through the area, exploring the new shops, theatre complex, outdoor sculpture and open space. Afterwards, optional lunch at one of the many restaurants in the area. Total distance covered will be about two to three miles. Meet in front of the South Station Train Station (NOT the T Station) at 10:30 a.m. BHV members and their guests. Free.

Thursday, May 10 10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Mass Energy Consumers Alliance

Learn practical steps you can take to reduce your carbon footprint from a representative from non-profit Mass Energy, including: how you can

"green" your electricity usage by making the switch to local, renewable energy; how you can practically switch to an electric car; and how to save money and use less heating oil. Meet at Beacon House, 19 Myrtle Street. BHV members and their guests and prospective members. Free.

Living Well/Ending Well:
Deciding About Driving

Tuesday, May 15 2 - 4 p.m.

Living Well/Ending Well: Deciding About Driving

Worried about your driving, or getting hassled by others about it? If so, this program is for you. Part of BHV's Living Well/Ending Well series, this program will help you develop objective information, based on expert assessments of many drivers, about your driving skills and limitations. This information will allow you to decide whether your driving is just fine – and thus squelch awkward conversations about “handing over the keys” – or should come to an end. Experts in driving assessment from AARP and Beth Israel's renowned DriveWise program will detail various measurement techniques, from online evaluations to intensive clinical evaluations. They will take your questions and suggest how you might use their services. In addition, BHV staff will discuss transportation options when driving is no longer an option. Meet at AARP, One Beacon Street, 23rd floor. Open to the public. Free.

Tour of Nantucket Lightship

Thursday, May 17 10:15 a.m. at Bowdoin T

Tour of Nantucket Lightship

Tour the Nantucket Lightship, a US Coast Guard floating lighthouse that guided ships past the treacherous Nantucket Shoals from 1936 to 1975, with Robert Mannino, President of the U.S. Lightship Museum and our recent Conversations with... speaker. The Nantucket was on the verge of being scrapped until Bob founded a nonprofit to buy and restore it. Roger Cox and Joan Doucette will lead this outing. Meet at the Bowdoin T Station at 10:15 a.m. for the short ride to Maverick in East Boston. It's an 8/10 mile walk from Maverick to where the Nantucket is docked. Please note that the restoration is a work in progress and that the lower deck is accessed via a ladder-like set of stairs with a railing. Lunch at KO Pies at the shipyard. BHV members and their guests and prospective members: $10 (a donation to help with restoration efforts).

Smell the Lilacs: Arnold Arboretum Walk

Tuesday, May 22 10:30 a.m.

Smell the Lilacs: Arnold Arboretum Walk

Join us for a walk through the Arnold Arboretum in Jamaica Plain, when many of the 370 lilac plants representing more than 176 kinds of lilacs of different colors, sizes and scents should be in bloom. Total distance covered, at a moderate pace, about two to three miles. Meet at the Haymarket T Station (on Congress Street near Taza Chocolate entrance to the Boston Public Market) at 10:30 a.m. OR at the Forest Hills T Station (after you exit the turnstiles) at 11 a.m. Bring water and a snack. BHV members and their guests and prospective members. Free.

Spectacle Island Ferry & Walk

Just 20 minutes from Boston, Spectacle Island is home to the highest point in the harbor, the North Drumlin, with panoramic views of the city and islands. The Island has a storied history, which you'll learn more about on this trip. After our short ferry ride, we'll explore some of the Island's five miles of walking trails. Plan on walking at least a couple of miles, with some gradual climbing.

Bring lunch and water. Meet at Long Wharf-North Pier, on the north side of the Long Wharf Marriott, next to Christopher Columbus Park, at 10:15 a.m. for the 10:30 a.m. ferry. Return trip is on the 2 p.m. boat. The closest T stop is Aquarium on the Blue Line. BHV members, their guests and prospective members: $13.

Thursday, May 31 7:30 p.m.

Boston Ballet: Classic Balanchine

The evening's performance at the Boston Ballet features three works choreographed by George Balanchine: Chaconne; Prodigal Son, one of Balanchine's first story ballets that weaves together movements from gymnastics, the circus and classical ballet; and Stravinsky Violin Concerto. Seats are in the first two rows of the mezzanine and rear orchestra, both on the side. Tickets are $55, a 40% discount. Register by April 25. Meet at the Boston Opera House, 539 Washington Street. BHV members and their guests.
