

China, Economic Espionage, and National Security: Government & Defense Perspectives

University of California, Irvine School of Law and the Orange County Asian-American Bar Association (OCAABA), in coordination with O’Melveny & Myers LLP, Bienert | Katzman PC, and Jones Day, are pleased to invite you to our “China, Economic Espionage, and National Security: Government and Defense Perspectives” MCLE panel.

The panel will provide attorneys, students, and other interested members of the community the opportunity to learn more about (i) recent developments in the federal government’s enforcement activities with respect to national security, economic espionage, and other counterintelligence challenges coming from China, and (ii) the impact such enforcement efforts have had on the legal and civil rights of Asian-Americans.

Panelists

- Nick Hanna, the U.S. Attorney for the Central District of California
- Brian Sun, partner-in-charge of the Los Angeles office of Jones Day
- John Littrell, partner at Bienert | Katzman PC (San Clemente and Los Angeles offices)

Moderator

- Tony Wang, partner in the Newport Beach office of O’Melveny & Myers LLP
