

PAPER MILL PLAYHOUSE VIRTUAL PROGRAMMING

Streaming Events Every Week: <https://papermill.org/virtual-programming/>

JOIN US EVERY WEEK FOR FREE ACCESS TO OUR VIRTUAL PROGRAMMING SERIES.

Upcoming:

Paper Mill Playhouse Producing Artistic Director Mark S. Hoebee and Managing Director Michael Stotts have announced special, all-access, previously live events. Join Paper Mill each week as we stream select choices of our Humanities Symposiums, and New Voices Concerts from years past, plus an all new feature—Babbling by the Brook—a weekly conversation from our very own Producing Artistic Director, Mark S. Hoebee.

All will appear on both the Facebook and YouTube pages at 7PM EST, and be available for viewing after as well.

Monday, June 8 – New Voices 2012. The annual New Voices concert is the culmination of Paper Mill Playhouse’s Summer Musical Theater Conservatory, featuring 120 talented student performers ages 10–18, directed and choreographed by Paper Mill Playhouse’s professional artistic staff.

Wednesday, June 10 – Babbling by the Brook. Dreamgirls Reunion with Angela Robinson, LaTonya Holmes, and Sharon Wilkins. Join Paper Mill’s own Producing Artistic Director Mark S. Hoebee for lighthearted, entertaining conversations with a star-studded roster of performers, writers, directors, and more theatrical denizens. Gain insight into our upcoming productions, delve into the creative process, and catch up with veteran actors!

Thursday, June 11 – Humanities Symposium Series: The Bronte Family and Wuthering Heights on the set of Wuthering Heights.

Hosted by Robert Johanson with a “lecture” by Professor Elliot Engel, a tour of the set by designer Michael Anania, and readings from the literary works by Libby Christophersen, Mark H. Dold, David Ledingham, Jodie Lynne McLintock, Ruth Moore, and Elizabeth Roby.

Monday, June 15 – New Voices 2011: I’ll Take Manhattan. The annual New Voices concert is the culmination of Paper Mill Playhouse’s Summer Musical Theater Conservatory, featuring 120 talented student performers ages 10–18, directed and choreographed by Paper Mill Playhouse’s professional artistic staff.

Wednesday, June 17 – Babbling by the Brook. Catch up with JoAnn M. Hunter. Join Paper Mill’s own Producing Artistic Director Mark S. Hoebee for lighthearted, entertaining conversations with a star-studded roster of performers, writers, directors, and more theatrical denizens. Gain insight into our upcoming productions, delve into the creative process, and catch up with veteran actors!