

Young Engineer of the Year

- Construction Manager and Civil Engineer
- BS (2009) Civil and MS (2014) Civil, Structural Engineering, Widener University
- Professional Engineer [PA]
- Professional accomplishments include the following projects and responsibilities:
 - Manage all aspects of a $40M I-76 viaduct rehab project
 - Manage the civil aspects of modular building construction projects
 - Manage the construction of all structural aspects on a $119M I-95/PA Tpk project
 - Provided CM and inspection services for a $3.5M Schuylkill River Trail Ext project
 - Monitored the budget, schedule and quality for $10M of PennDOT projects
 - Assigned and assisted construction inspectors on a $9M PennDOT project
- Professional and civic activities include:
 - ASCE Phila Sect Director (2018)
 - ASCE Phila Sect Younger Member Forum College Contact Chair, Secretary, VP, President, Past President (2012 – 2018)
 - ASCE Committee on Student Members Member (2017 – Present)
 - ASCE Widener University Chapter Practitioner Advisor (Present)
 - ASCE Temple Univ Chapter Practitioner Advisor (Present)
- Other certifications, honors, and activities include:
Awards-ASCE Young CE of the Year, ASCE Regional & Nat'l Outstanding Practitioner Advisor, ENR Outstanding Mentor, WHYY Featured Graduate; Publications-several presentations and articles; Certifications-NICET Level III, ACI Concrete Field Tech Gr I, PENNDOT Bitum Field Tech

Kevin Brown, Jr.

BSCE, MSCE, PE

Urban Engineers, Inc.

Regarding the Construction Industry: "The most powerful tool you can have in a project's construction toolbox is strong communication skills."

- Architecture Construction Engineering Mentor Program Eastern Pennsylvania Board, Member (March 2015 – Pres)
- Construction Management Association of America Member
- National Society of Black Engineers – Member
- Engineers Club of Philadelphia Board Member (January 2015 – Pres)
- ECP Committee on Younger Members Chair (Pres)

2021 DELAWARE VALLEY ENGINEERS WEEK

