*Mile 0.98 - Gnome Village

A small, quaint residential area inhabited by elusive Gnomes. Look closely to see if you can spot one hiding in the area.

*Mile 1.93 - Cypress Circle Residential Area

A unique neighborhood, removed from mainstream Redlands, where people walk along the middle of the street that is guarded by a haunted house at the entrance to the neighborhood.

*Mile 2.88 - Redlands High School

The high school theater is believed to be haunted by a teenage presence who lost his girlfriend in a car accident. He was so distraught by her death, that he would climb up into the air ducts and write poems about her. He died in an accident in the theater and now haunts the theater at all hours.

*Mile 3.47 - Fox Theater

The presence that resides here is reportedly a very violent one. The building it's connected to was once an opera house when Redlands was first founded. The ghost of a jealous actress still resides within the building.

*Mile 3.80 - Harris Department Store

After hours in the women's dressing room of the old Harris (Gottschalks) department store, women can be heard talking. Dressing room doors slam shut on their own. Also, heavy footsteps can be heard on the roof above.

*Mile 4.22 - Zanja Railroad Trestle

A new trail crosses the old trestle, but users fear for their lives as the sounds of an old steam locomotive can be heard approaching when anyone crosses the bridge.
