

Florida Floodplain Managers Association
2019 Annual Conferences
Abstracts

- Title: ETHICS FOR FLOODPLAIN MANAGERS & ENGINEERS
- Length: 90 minutes
- Subject: General Floodplain Management
- Target Audience: Ethics for Floodplain Managers and Engineers
- Presenter Name: Desiree (Des) Companion, CFM, past FFMA Chair, past ASFPM/CBOR Chapter Rep 7 years
CRS Coordinator
Sarasota County FL
- Biography: Desiree (Des) Companion, Certified Floodplain Manager, and the Community Rating System (CRS) Coordinator for Sarasota County FL since 2004. Des has served as President of the Florida Floodplain Managers Association 2012-2014, and a Chapter representative on the Certification Board of Regents for the Association of State Floodplain Managers from 2008 to 2015. Currently Des serves on many FFMA and ASFPM committees and recently was asked to join the ICC coalition. Des has provided training both nationally and statewide for floodplain management efforts.
- Co-Presenter: None
- Biography:
- Abstract: This Ethics class and 8 case studies for the class to work on were developed by ASFPM Professional Development & Continuing Education Committee. Lots of interaction and discussion. Randall Vogel, CFM, and Government Attorney in Polk County FL and will try to be with the class remotely.