

Florida Floodplain Managers Association
2019 Annual Conferences
Abstracts

---

- Title: The CCCL & ASCE 24 Under The 6th Ed. FBC
- Length: 90 minutes
- Subject: General Floodplain Management
- Target Audience: Floodplain Managers, Building Code Officials
- Presenter Name: John Farinelli, CBO, MCP, CFM, FSI 1, LEED AP
Vice President
JC Code & Construction Consultants, Inc.
- Biography: John Farinelli is Vice President of JC Code & Construction Consultants, Inc., a building and fire code consulting firm and continuing education provider in Florida. He has over 30 years' experience in the construction field and in building code administration. He is licensed by the state of Florida under F.S. 468 as a building code administrator, plans examiner and inspector in all disciplines and as a Fire Inspector I under F.S. 633. He is approved by the State of Florida as a continuing education provider and has taught electrical apprenticeship classes, licensing exam preparation classes, building and fire code continuing education seminars. He is a Master Code Professional holding 25 International Code Council (ICC) certifications, is credentialed as a LEED AP by the United States Green Building Council and is certified as a Floodplain Manager by the Association of State Floodplain Managers.
- Co-Presenter: None
- Biography:
- Abstract: This course provides an overview of the most significant changes occurring in Section 3109, Structures Seaward of a Coastal Construction Control Line, and provides an overview of the most significant provisions contained in ASCE 24-10, Flood Resistant Design and Construction.