OF

CLASSCRITS, INC.

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law

FIRST: The name of the corporation is ClassCrits, Inc.

SECOND: The corporation is a non-profit corporation and shall not have any capital stock. The conditions of membership shall be stated in the by-laws of the corporation.

THIRD: The corporation is formed exclusively for lawful charitable purposes, and in furtherance thereof: to promote critical analysis and transformative action so as to address problems of structural inequality in the economy and the law and advance economic justice; to improve public understanding of economic class as a system of power inextricably interconnected with race and gender hierarchies as well as with other systems of unequal power; to support and expand ideas and strategies for focusing social and economic justice on a broader and deeper vision of human and ecological flourishing and well-being; and thereby to promote social welfare.

FOURTH: (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of this certificate, the corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3), or any successor section, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or any successor statute (the "Code"), and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3), or any successor section, of the Code, or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2), or any successor section, of the Code.

(B) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation), and no member, director or officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.

(C) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h), or any successor section, of the Code), and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

FIFTH: Upon dissolution of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, after payment of all debts and liabilities of the corporation of whatsoever kind or nature, its remaining funds and other property and rights shall be distributed, granted, conveyed and assigned for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), or any successor section, of the Code.

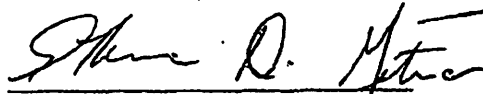

SIXTH: The names and addresses of the incorporators of the corporation are:
