Utah Association of Public Treasurers Presenters

Brad Barton –

Motivational Speaker

Professional keynote speaker Brad Barton was a misdirected kid headed for disaster. He ran headlong into a stern Greek wrestling coach who looked at this skinny little rebel and created a world class athlete. He ricocheted off an English teacher who took the time to read his dyslexic ramblings and created an author and public speaker. He bounced like a positive pinball from mentor to mentor all the way to a successful happy life as a father of six, a husband, a corporate speaker – a life designed for failure but destined for greatness. Whose greatness? The greatness of the corporations and associations this business speaker inspires. The tricks and tales of this high-energy corporate speaker with the magical message will have you believing you've got magic before you can say "Shazaam!"
