 Denver Elections
November 4 at 1:46 PM

For the first time ever, inmates at the Denver County Jail and Downtown Detention Center were able to vote in person on Monday and Tuesday. With help from Colorado Criminal Justice Reform Coalition and League of Women Voters of Denver, 136 inmates made their voices heard by doing so. Director of Inmate Programs at the Denver Sheriff Department said, "The genuine appreciation of so many people was overwhelming. So many told us this was their first time voting and they had no idea they had the right to vote. We clapped and cheered for every ballot that was dropped into a ballot box, and the smiles, even through masks, were unmistakable." Thank you to our partners and our own staff for their tremendous efforts to make the ballot box accessible to all eligible voters.

HEALTHY FOOD FOR DENVER'S Kids

Learn more about how your tax dollars are supporting healthy food for Denver kids! Through Ordinance 302, the Healthy Food for Denver's Kids (HFDK) Initiative has awarded almost $7 million in 2020 to feed Denver's youth 18 and under and provide education about food and nutrition.

Projects include providing healthy food to youth through school food pantries, snack programs, and no-cost grocery distribution. Organizations are also educating and empowering youth through food justice curriculum, cooking classes, and building and teaching in-school gardens, greenhouses, and hydroponic classrooms. Projects are taking place across the entire city, impacting approximately 129,500 Denver youth. Join HFDK staff from the Denver Department of Public Health & Environment to learn about what the City and County of Denver is doing to promote healthy

Bulb Sale Update

One Column Text

We are expecting the shipment of back-ordered Dutch Belle amaryllis late this week. We have copies of all the orders and will be contacting purchasers to pick up their amaryllis at the City Park Greenhouse when they are ready.

Also, we have a few indoor forcing bulbs left for sale. We have 10 paperwhite bulbs for $15 and 2 Pasadena amaryllis bulbs for $15 each. Actually we also have a Red Lion amaryllis left, but our records indicate it was presold. If you or one of your customers is missing a Red Lion amaryllis bulb, please let me know.
