

AGENDA SUBJECT TO CHANGE

Route Briefing: the Trent-Severn, Georgian Bay, and the North Channel Friday, June 28, 2019 – Trent Port Marina

Start	End	Session	Presenter(s)
9:00	9:30	Registration
9:30	10:30	A Day in the Life of a Lockmaster Ian Kearse from Lock 1 on the Trent Severn will join us to share what it's like to be a Lockmaster on the Trent Severn.	Ian Kearse, Parks Canada (tentative)
10:30	10:45	Break
10:45	12:15	Trent-Severn Waterway This is your opportunity to learn about the Trent-Severn Waterway from someone who has a deep-rooted passion for all things boating and canals as he has worked as a student, a lockmaster, and currently the Operations Manager for Ontario's Canals. Chad is a dedicated supporter of AGLCA and loves to share his knowledge and passion for canals. In this interactive and informative seminar, the best tips and tricks for navigating the Trent-Severn will be covered.	Chad Buchner, Parks Canada
12:15	1:00	Lunch
1:00	2:30	Georgian Bay & the North Channel This presentation will begin in Port Severn at Lock 45 and take you up the Eastern side of Georgian Bay through the small craft route into Killarney and into the breathtaking North Channel. We will show you safe harbours, places to see, places to anchor, places to eat and provide you with the tools necessary to experience Georgian Bay and the North Channel and all her glory.	Robin & Mike McKeown, Queens Cove Marina (Tentative)
2:30	2:45	Break
2:45	3:45	Selling Your Great Loop Boat Admiral Sponsor Curtis Stokes will provide insight into the state of the market and how to sell your boat.	Curtis Stokes, Curtis Stokes & Associates
3:45	4:30	Open Q&A, Wrap Up, Door Prizes
4:30	6:00	Looper Crawl Adult beverages available for purchase from Trent Port Marina.	