Exciting News!

TCBA is really excited to begin using ClubExpress, a service that will help us post rides, compile mileage, and have our website connected to these. The website will have the same address <http://www.biketcba.org> and is now on line.

You will be getting an e-mail from mailer@mail2.clubexpress.com that will ask you to login and set up your account so you can access the TCBA "Members Only" ClubExpress website. This is a critical step! Please set up your access and profile in your club site so you can access all of the benefits your club has to offer!

TCBA is moving to this new service to make our data more secure and to help with Smartphone compatibility. ClubExpress offers members ease of use, mileage updates, and a calendar that has all of the daily rides listed in one easy place to locate.

While the website is being developed, many areas will have only minimal content. The website will take some time to get fully up to speed. Please be patient and check in often to watch your club site grow.

Be sure to login to your club's new site when you get your e-mail, and stay tuned for the latest news on our new website, and as always, on the official TCBA Facebook page!

TCBA wants to thank Wendell, who is retiring from being the TCBA webmaster for his many years and countless hours of dedicated service bringing us into and keeping us in the ever-changing world of technology.

Bicycle Helmet Safety Institute The Helmet Update

Vol. 34, #2 -- April 13, 2016

Recall of Rollerblade USA inline skating helmets

CPSC announced today the recall of Rollerblade USA Maxxum inline skate helmets. Some may be in use as bike helmets. The recalled model looks like a classic skate-style helmet with two rectangular front vents and an ABS hard shell.

The announcement is at <http://www.cpsc.gov/en/Recalls/2016/Rollerblade-USA-Recalls-Helmets/>

"This recall involves black Rollerblade brand Maxxum helmets. "Rollerblade" is printed on the side of the helmet, a white inline skate logo is printed on the back of the helmet and a label on the inside of the helmet contains the model number "YJ-219" and production date of October 2014 or earlier. The SKU number 06520210100 is printed on the helmet's box.

The helmet's plastic shell can crack where the straps attach, causing the helmet to shift and move on the wearer's head. This can result in a head injury hazard to the user in the event of a fall."

March-April 2016 Advocacy Report

Mike Unsworth

New Meeting Location & Time

On March 9 we started meeting at the Neighborhood Empowerment Center (600 W. Maple St., Lansing). The start time has been adjusted to 6:30 P.M. and end time at 8:00 P.M.

Ride of Silence

The Ride will take place Wednesday, May 18, 2016, with the Rain Day being Saturday, May 21. Details at: <http://tinyurl.com/2016LanROS>. Lysne Tait is the director for the second year in a row and has preparations well in hand.

Ingham County Trails and Park Millage

At its March 23 meeting the Ingham County Commission approved the millage Task Force report. This report sets up mechanisms to prioritize spending for four areas (in order of importance): New Construction, Maintenance, Parks, and Special Projects. Details are at: <http://pk.ingham.org/InghamCountyTrailsandParksMillage.aspx>

Applicants for millage funds are currently restricted to governmental bodies. Nancy Krupiarz is working to bring stakeholders together to form a TART Trails-style maintenance and promotional group (<http://traversetrails.org/>) that would work to get millage funding to help with its work.

Tri-County Regional Planning Commission (TCRPC) FY 2017-20 Transportation Improvement Program Projects (TIP) [<http://mitcrpc.org/trp.htm>]

TCRPC held a March 23 public meeting that many Advocacy Committee members attended. Several projects, especially those in the Transportation Alternative Program (<http://tinyurl.com/IC2916TAP>), deal with trails and bike lanes. The Commission will be accepting comments through June 22 when it hopes to approve the list.

Michigan Pedestrian and Bicycle Safety Conference at Mt. Pleasant (April 29 & 30)

At least eight TCBA members attended with two Advocacy Committee members presenting: Steve Leiby (Funding for Local Bike/Ped Safety programs & Bike Rodeos), and Tim Potter (Bike Maintenance).

Greater Lansing Bike Movie Night

The second edition of this event (<http://tinyurl.com/2016GLBM>) will be on May 20 at the Robin Theatre, 1105 S Washington Ave, Lansing, Show times are 7 P.M. & 9 P.M.

Dean Brailey and Tim Potter have done the organizational heavy lifting.

River Trail event closures

Committee member Mike Dombrowski will work with Andy Kilpatrick, the City of Lansing's Transportation Engineer, to plot detours and ensure that they are clearly marked.

Friends of the Meridian Township Pathways

This newly revitalized group met on April 7 in which Township officials reviewed the progress of the Township's Pathways program. There was also a mapping exercise in which the attendees marked their preferences for priority projects.

Advocacy Web Pages

The pages are in the process of migrating to the new TCBA web site.

The TCBA Advocacy Committee meets the second Wednesday of each month at Conference Room A of the Neighborhood Empowerment Center (600 W. Maple St., Lansing) from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Opinion

submitted by Mike Unsworth

TCBA and the Ingham County Trails Millage Mike Unsworth Chair, Advocacy Committee

TCBA members now have the opportunity to influence trail expansion and improvement in our part of Michigan. The way to do so is to participate in our local governments' requests for projects from Ingham County's fund for trails and county parks. This money comes from an annual .5 mill levy passed by County voters in November 2014; it is intended to support the development of a county-wide regional trails and parks system. Each year roughly $3.5 million will become available for projects.

The County Board of Commissioners formed a Task Force to determine how the money should be spent. Acting with help from the consulting firm of Mannik Smith and from Nancy Krupiarz of the Michigan Trails & Greenways Alliance, the Task Force arrived at a system for allocating the money. In the course of studying the situation, the Task Force encountered the immediate need for critical maintenance on existing trails and bridges. Thus, it reserved the money from first two years of the millage for major maintenance. Local governments will perform repairs and then apply for re-imbursement from the millage fund.

In future years, governments will submit applications in four areas: New Construction, Long Term Maintenance & Rehabilitation, Parks, and Special Projects. The County will evaluate the projects in light of whether they:

Improve Regional Connectivity, Respond to Public Demand and Support, Meets Design Standards, Is Feasible and Ready for Development, Supports Equitable Opportunities, Has Potential for Available Funds.

TCBA members who want to have better, more connected trails in their communities should contact their local governments (usually Parks departments) and communicate their concerns. They can mobilize their friends and neighbors to support proposals. The TCBA Advocacy Committee is willing to help.

Until the Advocacy pages have been transferred to the new TCBA web site, please contact me (advocacy@biketcba.org).

There are also two critical other features of the plan that the County has adopted. The first is maintenance. The plan states routine maintenance is the responsibility of the trail owners. Millage funds can only be used for Long Term Maintenance and Rehabilitation. This stipulation puts many rural townships at a disadvantage since they have limited budgets.

The Task Force saw two ways of addressing this situation. The first is forming an intergovernmental trails council that would set county-wide standards, coordinate projects, and take advantage of economies of scale.

Another option is forming a non-profit group that could perform trail maintenance and publicize the trails network, such as the Traverse Area's TART Trails (www.traversetrails.org). TCBA supports this approach and is lobbying county government to allow non-profits to apply for trail millage dollars.

The other key feature is having a County employee devoted to working on millage spending. This position, funded from the millage, would work with local governments in determining possible projects and identifying outside funding.

Are TCBA members from outside Ingham County just observers? Clinton and Eaton County have a number of projects that would benefit from linking with nearby Ingham County ones. By working across county lines TCBA members can help support a trails network that serves its residents and attract visitors.

Recall of Schwinn brand toddler helmets with magnetic buckle

CPSC announced today the recall of Schwinn toddler helmets with magnetic buckles. Pacific Cycle imported the helmets, sold only at Target stores. Packaging has "No Pinch Buckle. Infant" and the helmet is shaped like an adult road helmet with vents.

The helmets have been recalled because:
"The magnetic buckle on the helmet's chin strap contains small plastic covers and magnets that can come loose, posing a risk of choking and magnet ingestion to young children."

The remedy: "Consumers should immediately take the helmets away from children and contact Pacific Cycle for instructions on how to receive a free replacement helmet."

CPSC has been ordering recalls for many products that contain magnets that can come loose. When ingested by kids the magnets can cause catastrophic intestinal injuries.

The announcement is at
