

Dixie SC Scow-Now Regatta

April 11-12, 1992, Fleet 39-Montgomery, AL

Submitted by Joe McFadden

Visiting master Win Story of Atlanta sailed off with first place in the Dixie Sailing Club's Scow-Now Regatta.

Dying winds and rising motorboat chop held the fleet to only two races Saturday, but a quieter lake and a nice breeze awaited the ten boats Sunday morning. So, an extra race Sunday made a more satisfying total of four races altogether.

Jim Bryan and Burl Murphy of DSC were second and third followed by Jim Gray and Fleet Captain Doug Rogers, both of Atlanta.

Arlington YC MC Regatta

May 16-17, 1992, Fleet 41-Arlington, TX,

Submitted by Drew Mize.

Racing conditions were anything but ideal for the two day, four race series as a low pressure cell had stalled over the area producing rain over the weekend. Winds Saturday were in the 10-18 mph range. By Sunday there was hardly a breeze to be found except for the four 180° shifts encountered during the race. In spite of the threatening weather, the race committee produced good courses and we had some close racing.
