

4th MC Masters Regatta

July 12-15, 1995, Fleet 46 Cedar Lake YC, Wisconsin

Ken Klug and Jim Mueller shared the chairmanship of this year's event, but also share a long history of competing against each other. Forty years ago they learned to sail together. They traded regatta wins for many years. Ken won the 1951 and 1953 Cub and Jim the 1952 Cub Championship. And now they are sailing against each other in the MC, when Jim is back in Wisconsin waters from his home in Brussels, Belgium.

For Tim Fredman of Pine Lake, Wisconsin this was his third consecutive masters (over 50) title. John Lieber finished second and remarked, "This is the best I have ever done in a regatta. I guess you get better with age." Milt Haeger, winner of the inaugural Masters in 1992 finished third.

Wally Schwarting edged Bill Freytag by 6.5 points to take the Grand Masters (over 60) title. Wally took first possession of the handsome new perpetual trophy donated by the masters of the Missouri Yacht Club. Harvey Schaefer of the host club took third place honors in the Grand Masters division.

Next year the Masters will be at Diamond Lake YC, Cassopolis, Michigan. See you there.

Thanks to Ken Klug for these results.
