Celebrity Invitational Regatta

June 13-14, 1998
Fleet 5 Rush Creek YC, TX

Report from Herman van Beek

It took only two races for Hank Lammens to get the hang of the MC. He cleaned up by decisively winning the next two races. Hank's credentials include winning back-to-back Finn World Championships in 1990 and 1991, and medal contention at the 1992 Olympics. He is also a former hockey player in the NHL: for the Ottawa Senators. At the end of the first day he was in third place behind Jack Kern and Scott Slocum. Unfortunately, he was not able to compete on Sunday.

While winds were a steady 10-15 on Saturday, they had picked up to 15-20 by Sunday morning. A 9:00 AM start guaranteed two races and with it, one throw-out.

In the end, Scott Slocum edged Jack Kern out by one point to win the regatta. David Hamilton, Bill Jackson and Rick Tears rounded out the top five. Ralph Kelley awarded specially decorated T-shirts to those "whose mast touched the water": Rick Tears and Jason Bradley qualified twice.
