

"What a Day" Regatta

July 10, 2000
Fleet 18 Indian Lake YC, Michigan

Report from Bob Buddig, Regatta Chairman

The "What a Day" regatta was held at the Indian Lake Yacht Club, Dowagiac, Michigan. (That is in Southwest Michigan). It was a one-day regatta with 4-5 races planned and was the first such regatta held at Indian Lake.

The turnout was great; we had 23 boats representing six different yacht clubs. (Thanks go to Herman van Beek for posting the regatta information and helping to draw additional sailors.)

Due to poor weather (light air) only two races were held with a brat fry lunch taking place in between the races.

A good time was had by everyone!

Carolina Open Regatta

July 29-30, 2000
Fleet 62 Carolina Yacht Club, SC

Report from Jeff Annis

21 Boats competed in this regatta. Both days started off stormy and so nobody went out until mid-afternoon. The races were held in 5 - 10 knot winds and sometimes the tide ran very strong due to the 'new moon' phase.

There were five boats from Augusta, Georgia (host for the 2001 MC National Championship which will be held May 31 - June 2, 2001).

Four new MC owners from the Southeast joined the class recently. John McIntosh of Savannah, Ga bought a new boat. He is regarded as one of the best single-handed sailors in the SE and promises to be very competitive. Another Savannah sailor is leaning towards acquiring a used boat.

Jim Claffey of Augusta sailed in this regatta, his first in an MC. He is a former district champion, club champion and national contender in the Coronado 15 for over 20 years.

Joey Waters from Columbia, SC is the 3rd MC in Columbia where they race on Lake Murray. He purchased MC 1200. Joey is the former Y-Flyer National Champion and has been a national champion contender in several other classes. Joey reports that there are several folks in that area looking at used boats. Lake Murray is only 50 miles from the Augusta Sailing Club. Robery Key, also an experienced competitor from Columbia has been in an MC since this spring.

Paul Rossman sold his boat to Scott Baste from Northeast Georgia and Paul is buying a 1994 JBW MC from the Midwest as this report is written.

The next big event is the Rockville Regatta this coming weekend. Rockville is located just south of Charleston.

Things are popping in the Southeast!
