

Colorado's longest continually operated ski resort

25 JANUARY 2020 – 1 FEBRUARY 2020

Average annual snowfall is over 317 inches. The resort's base sits at 9,000 ft with 3,060 ft of vertical rise and is the closest ski area to Denver. It has long been a favorite of the locals, known for its groomers and long cruisers. With 166 trails and 21 lifts there are plenty of options for all levels of skier. The longest run is 4.9 miles!

Non-skiers will not lack for activities also: snowshoe tours (day/night), fat tire snow bike, ski bike night tours, snowmobile the continental divide, snowcat tours (day/night), sleigh rides, backcountry tour, ice skate, dog sled, x-country ski, museum/historical tours, sled/tube, broom ball.
