

NYS Infant and Toddler Resource Network Target Audiences

early care &
Learning COUNCIL

230 Washington Ave Ext
Albany, NY 12203
(518) 690-4217
earlycareandlearning.org

*Programs means programs serving infants and toddlers

NYS Infant and Toddler Resource Network

NYS Infant and Toddler Resource Network

ENHANCING AWARENESS

Infant and Toddler Specialists provide

Education & Communication

to caregivers and others about the importance of high quality.

- 2,348 Basic TA contacts
- 540 activities categorized as meetings
- 102 activities categorized as resource development

INCREASING KNOWLEDGE

Infant and Toddler Specialists provide

Workshops & Coursework

to educate caregivers and others about best practices in the first three years.

- 430 training sessions held statewide
- 6,083 participants trained
- Average knowledge gain was 26 %

IMPROVING CAREGIVER PRACTICES

Infant and Toddler Specialists provide

Technical Assistance & Coaching

to support child care providers in their professional development and program improvement.

- 97 Quality Improvement Plans developed
- 282 goals with progress made or fully met
- 39 Environment Rating Scales (ERS) conducted
- Average ERS score increase of 20% in centers
- Average ERS score increase of 26% in family based programs
- 98% of participants agreed or strongly agreed that the overall TA process was useful

INCREASING CAPACITY

Infant and Toddler Specialists facilitate

Collaboration & Coordination

among infancy professionals, caregivers and families.

- 989 capacity building activities conducted
- 340 contacts with CCR&R staff
- 91 contacts with Office of Children and Families staff
- 90 contacts with parents
- 194 contacts with other community members

ENGAGING IN PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Infant and Toddler Specialists stay current with

Research & Best Practices

for high quality care through professional development.

- 18 Infant and Toddlers Specialists are PITC certified
- 170 reports of engaging in professional development