Hello,

I hope you will join us for the Annual Meeting on May 6th at Nissi's in Lafayette. It promises to be an informative and fun meeting. More details are inside the Voter.

At the meeting, Justine Vigil Tapia will speak about the Latino History Project. Justine is the Boulder County Deputy Clerk and Elections Coordinator.

Her multi-cultural family and friends ARE Boulder County Latino History! Our second speaker will be Marjorie McIntosh, author of Latinos of Boulder County, Colorado, Volumes I and II, written for the Latino History Project. Marjorie is a C.U. Distinguished Professor of History Emerita. These speakers continue our commitment to reach out, listen and learn from under-represented voters in our county.

At the meeting, we'll have a great breakfast, get you up to date on what's going on with LWVBC, celebrate achievements, award honors to those who have worked especially hard on our League mission this year, give you a summer preview, and listen to your suggestions on League business! The cost is only $25, so please sign-up.

In this Voter please review the Awards Criteria and make your nominations to Liz Black by April 15th. This year we'd like your suggestions on outstanding members, a valuable community partner and an elected official who has made our community a better place to live.

IT IS BULB TIME AGAIN!

From Lois Linsky

Just a heads up that we WILL be selling bulbs again this year! It is such a wonderful fundraiser for our League. We will be working with the Denver League again—all we have to do is sell the bulbs and deliver them. The Denver League does all the sorting and packaging of the bulbs shipped from Holland. Last year we made over $1000!

Packets with pictures of the bulbs and order forms will be available at our Annual Meeting Saturday, May 6th and at other League functions. The pictures and forms may also be available on our website. Right now, we don't have all the information.

Please consider helping us with this fundraiser this year. We'll have the packets as of April 2nd and will send out e-blasts as we receive more information.

Our deadline will be June 1st for the sales and we will receive the bulbs for planting in mid-October. I've already had my crocuses come up and now the daffodils are starting to bloom! And best of all the money we spend helps support the Boulder County League's events and projects!

Please call or email if you have any questions: LFLINSKY@hotmail.com, 303-499-2689

Taking Action:

On to Concurrence with the Voting Methods Position!

After our recent consensus meetings, the LWVBC board approved a new voting methods position (see below). On March 16, the LWVCO board recommended the position for concurrence at the state convention in May!

The Voting Methods (VM) Team started work in 2012 and has been very active this year with consensus meetings, hosting live-streamed community conversations entitled More Choices for Voters and developing a 39-page study packet. To garner support for concurrence, the VM Team is sending information to all local Leagues. The information includes a link to a new Voting Methods 101 video covering the basics of voting methods and our new position. (To see the video, click here to view Voting Methods 101.)

If delegates to the May 20-21 LWVCO convention vote to support concurrence, the League can advocate at state and local levels for better voting methods to more accurately represent voters' preferences.

You can help the VM Team by actively promoting concurrence. Reach out to people you know in other local Leagues, especially those who will be delegates to convention. For complete VM information, access the VM webpage: Voting Methods Team.

RATIONALE AND POSITION STATEMENT:

Because plurality voting (the voting method most commonly used in elections across the USA) often produces results that do not accurately represent the voters' preferences, and

Because the 2016 election has heightened interest in better voting methods locally, statewide and nationally in order to get results that more accurately represent the voters' preferences, and

Because, while acknowledging that there is no perfect method of voting, there is agreement among voting methods experts that there are alternative methods of voting (e.g., rank choice, approval, score) that, compared to plurality, more accurately represent the voters' preferences, improve the election experience, and encourage honest voting rather than tactical voting, and

Because improving the election experience can help the LWV reach its Making Democracy Work® goals of engaging more voters in the election process and increasing fairness in and accessibility to the democratic process, and

Because the LWV of Colorado and LWVUS do not have a position on voting methods, therefore

The LWV of Boulder County offers the following position statement for local league consideration and seeks their vote of concurrence at the 2017 May Convention of the League of Women Voters of Colorado:

The League supports authorizing and implementing alternatives to plurality voting that allow people to express their preferences more effectively. The League supports gaining on-the-ground experience with alternative voting methods in order to ascertain whether a voting method results in outcomes that match voters' preferences as recorded on their ballots. The League supports voting methods that can improve the election experience, that encourage honest voting rather than tactical voting, and that consider ease of implementation.

On to Concurrence with the Voting Methods Position! (continued)

Considerations:

- Some voting methods are intended for single-winner elections, others for multi-winner elections. It is important that the intended use of a voting method match its actual application. Multi-winner voting methods can promote proportional representation which fosters diversity of our elected officials.
- Election officials should conduct post-election analysis to evaluate the voters' usage of the voting method and the election's reflection of voters' stated preferences. There should be sufficient data transparency – for example, access to ballot records in anonymous form – for an independent analysis to be conducted by other interested groups.

Taking Action: Talking about Money in Politics !

From Shirley Jin

Shirley Jin and Peggy Leech gave the KGNU League Update on 30 March 2017. They talked briefly about how money in politics is affecting our electoral system. They also told us about legislation introduced very recently in the Colorado Legislature.

Four bills were introduced in the Colorado legislature on March 15 to address some of the problems of big money in Colorado elections. People can contact their state legislators to urge passage of these bills. Legislators need to hear the people's voice loudly and clearly. More information on Money in Politics can be found on our web page: Campaign Finance Reform Team.

The Campaign Finance Reform Team will give a presentation at the State League Convention in May. We will provide information on Money in Politics, including a short power point that local leagues can take to inform groups in their community. We will also be encouraging local leagues to learn about their local city and county campaign finance regulations to determine what changes are needed to keep outside money out of their elections.

LWVBC Program Planning 2017

From Jeannette Hillary

There were 43 people at Program Planning. Two meetings were held.

Members did not ask for any positions to be removed or updated.

CONSENSUS: Members did agree to go to consensus on Voting Methods. Several years ago, a Team did a study on voting methods but had not gone to consensus. It was felt, given the present environment that the League should have a position on this. The team will quickly mobilize and get material updated t and have consensus in the spring of 2017.

LWVBC will present information on Voting Methods consensus to State League at convention requesting concurrence from other state leagues. There seems to be favorable opinion at the state level to pursue this information and consensus.

Other discussion topics were trying to give direction to the Schools team, particularly in regard to St Vrain for any topics of importance. Topics suggested were: migrant children, vocational education, and curriculum about government.

Audit Report: FY 2015-2016

January, 2017

Re: AUDIT REPORT of the League of Women Voters of Boulder County ("LWVBC") for Fiscal Year ("FY") 2015-16

We, the Audit Committee, have reviewed:

1. The implementation of recommendations from the Audit Report of FY2014-15
2. The record keeping of LWVBC which includes revenue and expenditures, beginning and ending cash balances and the FY end bank statement/reconciliation
3. Changes in recording keeping for FY2016-17

We, the Audit Committee, find that the books are an accurate reflection of the financial condition of the LWVBC for the FY2015-16 and of its operations and cash flows for that fiscal year. Further, we commend the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer for their commitment to accuracy, clarity, transparency, and compliance with recommended best League and general accounting practices.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah Vink, LWVBC member

2017-18 Proposed Budget & Dues

A responsible fiscal structure is a must for any organization worthy of the public’s trust and the trust of its members. An accounting of the LWVBC’s current budget and expenditure, as well as the proposed budget for 2017-2018 follows. In reviewing the 2016-2017 budget and expenditures, as well as the successes of our fledgling new events and the goals of our strategic planning, the Budget Committee (Lurbin Moore, Pat Long, Peggy Leech, Ruth Stemler, Susan Saunders) projected our best estimate for income and expenditures for this next year.

Our Fund Development officers have completed the conversion of the League’s non-profit status to a 501 (c) 3, effective September 24, 2016. In light of this success, we are showing the budget and actual spending for 2016-1017 as combined totals from our General fund and our Ed Fund, which has been transferred from the LWVCO account to our bank. As you review the draft budget, be aware the combined Actual Expenditure column shows data through February 15, 2017, so there are 4 months of the year in which we will continue to incur expenses such as an intern, the state convention delegates, and several voter registration drives at area festivals and the Farmers Markets. We also expect to be raising additional funds with this year’s bulb sales and other fundraising activities. This year we are not attempting to show a perfectly balanced budget – matching income with expense and noting potential reserves on the expense side. Our budget figures compared to actual income and expense will tell the story and excess revenue collected will appear in the assets table of our final fiscal year report, following the closing of the books on June 30.

The LWVBC Board voted to request a local dues increase, settling on $66 per member, effective upon approval at the 2017 Annual Meeting. This increase is reflected in the estimated income and expense of the proposed budget. The proposed dues appear below. The national and state per member payments (PMP) increase gradually over the years, reducing the revenue available to LWVBC for its operating expense per person. The new rate was selected with the aim of restoring the revenue level for our local League. This will encourage education and advocacy activities in the community, using popular media options, convenient meeting venues, and other methods to ensure visibility and expand our viability as a force in active governance.

We have set some goals for expanding our revenue stream. In light of our 501 (c) 3 status and the current state of democracy in our country, we are confident contributors will be generous to the LWVBC. Also, we will be asking our members to demonstrate their support of the education and advocacy goals through their donations.

A budget is a guideline and unexpected expenditures may occur, but we are convinced the careful practices of all our LWVBC officers will maintain the trust of our members. The revenues have been conservatively estimated and the expenditures estimated liberally. In addition, the LWVBC has a current cash reserve equal to 80 % of the expense budgeted for this next year.

2017-18 Bylaws Change Proposals

The following proposed changes to three bylaws are presented to the membership in order to improve the description of the Treasurer’s position; to simplify the membership dues description; and to add flexibility in the selection of Board members for the future.

The Treasurer’s position has been modified to meet the best fiscal practice of separating the receipt and disbursement of funds between two individuals.

The dues description has been refined to allow individuals to join the league at any point in time and to renew that membership annually upon the individual’s enrollment date. Beginning with approval at the 2017 Annual Meeting, this eliminates the complexities of establishing a September 30 expiration date for members who join throughout the year. The new membership management software will facilitate the issuance of reminders when a member’s expiration date is approaching and will track lapses in membership.

The Nominating Committee will no longer have to determine who will perform the duties of the President in the event of her/his absence and the newly elected Board members will decide amongst themselves who will serve in that capacity. This provides flexibility to the Nominating Committee to fill whatever portfolios are vacant or scheduled for renewal, without also having to convince a person to accept the possible duties of President. A minimum number of Board members is set without confining them to specific titles or descriptions, which allows leadership by the LWVBC Board, to develop to fit the League’s needs.

LWVBC Bylaws: Article V Officers, Section 5 The Treasurer

Current:

Proposed:

The Treasurer shall collect and receive all moneys due. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of these moneys, shall deposit them in a bank designated by the Board of Directors, and shall disburse the same only under order of the Board.

The Treasurer serves on the Board and is responsible for all financial aspects of the organization by overseeing the financial administration, reviewing procedures and financial reporting, advising the Board on financial strategy and advising on fundraising. The Treasurer disburses according to Board policy or direct order of the Board.

The Assistant Treasurer is appointed by the Board and manages accounting procedures. The Assistant Treasurer collects and deposits all monies received and reviews all records with the Treasurer accomplishing tasks as assigned.

The Treasurer shall present statements to the Board at their regular meetings and an Annual Report to the Annual Meeting. There shall be an audit or examination of the books of the Treasurer before the Annual Meeting and at such other times as requested by the Treasurer or the Board of Directors.

The Treasurer shall present statements to the Board at their regular meetings and an Annual Report to the Annual Meeting. There shall be a review or examination of the books of the Treasurer before the Annual Meeting and at such other times as requested by the Treasurer or the Board of Directors.

LWVBC Bylaws: Article VI Financial Administration, Section 2 Dues

Current:

Proposed:

a. Annual dues shall be payable on the last day of September. The amount payable shall be recommended by the Board of Directors and submitted to the Annual Meeting for adoption of changes. Any member who fails to pay dues within four months after they become payable shall be dropped from the membership rolls. During the period from the first day of February through the date of the Annual Meeting, any person who becomes an individual member or the first member in a household shall pay half the regular, basic dues, which payment shall provide membership until September 30 of the same calendar year. Any person who becomes a member during the period starting the day after the date of the Annual Meeting through September 29, shall pay at the regular, basic annual rate and shall receive membership that extends to September 30, of the following calendar year. If student memberships are offered at a reduced rate, no further reductions are provided to such members during the discount period. Members may pay in advance for additional years of membership, at the rates in effect at the time of payment.

b. When two or more members reside in the same household and only one copy of mailings is sent to that household, the first member shall pay the same dues rate that pertains to an individual membership, according to the provisions of Sub-section "a" above, and be eligible for the discounted rate between the first day of February and the date of the Annual Meeting. Additional members in a household shall pay dues at a reduced rate of 50 percent of the regular, individual rate, with no additional reduction in dues during the discount period.

a. Annual dues consist of three parts: the per member payment (PMP) collected and sent to the State League annually; the PMP collected and sent to the National League annually; and the payment collected by the LWVBC for the purpose of meeting its operating expenses and maintaining a reserve.

b. The dues shall be no less than the sum of the PMPs paid annually to the State and National Leagues, plus the amount deemed necessary for operations at the local level. The amount payable shall be recommended by the Board and submitted to the Annual Meeting for adoption of changes. Increases to one or both PMP levels may be added by action of the Board, to the annual dues rate agreed upon at the LWVBC Annual Meeting the same year the new PMP takes effect.

c. An eligible person becomes a member of the LWVBC upon payment of dues and remains a member for 12 months, setting an expiration date. No refunds are given if members chose to resign in advance of their membership expiration date. Members may pay in advance for additional years of membership. Renewal for 12 months requires payment of dues within 30 days following the expiration date. Failure to pay within one month of the expiration date shall cause the individual to be dropped from the membership rolls. The individual may be reinstated at any point when s/he has again paid in full. If the individual was dropped from membership more than six months prior to the payment resulting in reinstatement, the expiration date shall be reset to the one-year anniversary of that payment.

2017-18 Bylaws Change Proposals

LWVBC Bylaws: Article VI Financial Administration, Section 2 Dues (continued)

Proposed:

	d. Members are those for whom regular dues are paid in full. Student member dues equal one half the regular member’s rate. Household member dues are one half the regular member’s rate and this applies to the first and each subsequent individual who shares an address with the primary member. Sustaining members are those who make monthly payments of at least $5/month above the individual rate. The sustaining contribution may be paid monthly or in a single lump sum of at least $60 per individual ($120 for a sustaining household). Life members are those with more than 50 years of membership and are not charged dues. Complimentary members are those excused from paying dues by action of the board. Eligible members may opt for a different category of membership when they renew.

Annual Meeting

Saturday, May 6, 2017

9:00 – 11:30 am

Nissi's

2675 North Park Drive, Lafayette

(near 95th & Arapahoe)

Please plan to attend the LWVBC Annual Meeting on Saturday, May 6. We will begin the day with a breakfast buffet (cost: $25/person), followed by our program.

Our two speakers will talk about the Boulder County Latino History Project: the project itself and the ongoing educational efforts that have followed. Justine Vigil-Tapia was a member of the Boulder County Latino History Project Advisory Committee. Marjorie McIntosh wrote the two books that describe what the project learned: Latinos of Boulder County, Colorado, 1900-1980.

And, of course, we will attend to business, which includes election of officers, approval of the budget, approval of bylaws changes, and adoption of the 2017-2018 program.

New this year: a "photo booth". We will take photos of our members, for the new membership directory, which is a part of our new Club Express membership management software.

Make your reservation now for our annual meeting. Mail the registration form below (also available on-line at Mail-In Registration Form), to be received by Tuesday, May 2, 2017. You can register online by clicking on the Events Calendar.
